Burglar Tool Charge Holds One Of 2 Men

Companion Denies 2 Charges In Auto Registration Case

LISBON — A California man charged with possession of burglary tools was bound over to the Columbiana County grand jury Thursday afternoon and bonds totaling $5,000 were set for a companion cited on motor vehicle registration charges.

William Garrett VanZee II, 23, of San Anselmo was held to court by County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine for possession of burglary tools. His bond was set at $5,000.

VanZee and Wayne Russell Redmond, 30, of San Jose, Calif., were taken into custody earlier this week on a tip given by a suspicious clerk at the Courthouse where Redmond sought car titles.

Redmond yesterday pleaded not guilty to two charges of giving false information and name in making application on an affidavit for certificates of title for a 1962 Lincoln sedan and 1961 Lincoln convertible.

Bond in each charge was set at $2,500 by County Judge James L. MacDonald. A hearing was set for Nov. 9 to allow Redmond to obtain an attorney.

A charge of driving without an operator's license against Redmond was continued until Monday in the East Palestine court by Judge Arfman, also to allow defendant to secure counsel.

Officials still are continuing their investigation and the Federal Bureau of Investigation has entered the case. Redmond was picked up after a clerk in the car title department became suspicious after he applied for two Ohio license certificates with New York titles which were not even soiled or bent.

Charges were filed by Howard Lisk, inspector of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, and Patrolman D. E. Johnson of the State Highway Patrol.

Postal Authorities

Still Study Papers

Postal authorities at Cincinnati said today they still are studying lease agreement papers for the proposed combination Post Office-City Hall proposal at Wellsville.

The Wellsville Taxpayers League, opponents of the proposal, objected to a statement in Thursday's Review that the postal authorities "already have signed" an agreement with the city to lease the space. League spokesmen said this morning they also had contacted Cincinnati and were informed that no agreement of any nature has been signed to date.

Any final action is contingent upon acceptance or rejection of the $250,000 bond issue at Tuesday's election which would provide the money for construction of the combination building.

Jury Called In Auditor's Office Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Robert Draper ordered the attorney general's first assistant today to present evidence to a grand jury in the much-publicized adding machine case.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic candidate for re-election took the charges against his Republican opponent, State Auditor James A. Rhodes, to Draper.

The governor said Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy has made himself unavailable to handle the case and that Draper subpoenaed McElroy's first assistant, Theodore R. Saker.

Saker said, after conferring with the governor, that McElroy wanted more time to study the evidence gleaned by the governor's two special investigators.

Prior to Saker's being subpoenaed, DiSalle distributed to newsmen what he said was the evidence at hand.

The governor said "there is no indication that Mr. Saker is going to proceed" under DiSalle's instructions. The governor added that the evidence at hand indicates widespread irregularities in the auditor's office.

DiSalle said he planned to again ask the emergency board for money to make a complete investigation of Rhodes' office. The board previously turned down two requests by DiSalle, but released $15,000 to Rhodes.

The governor had urged McElroy to take the court action and in a letter to the attorney general said:

"We have certain documented evidence indicating that the state of Ohio and certain subdivisions have been victimized as a result of a practice whereby adding machines have been purchased and paid for by the state of Ohio and same machines were charged by certain examiners to various subdivisions under audit . . .

"I consequently ask that you take the appropriate action necessary to present this matter to the proper court at the earliest possible moment."

Seven-Tenths Mill Asked

Levy For County Home Would Finance Repairs

LISBON — The seven-tenths mill levy for the Columbiana County Home on Tuesday's ballot would provide about $140,000 annually for maintenance, repair, operations and new construction, commissioners pointed out today as they appealed for support.

The only countywide fund measure on the ballot, it would run for three years.

A new sewage disposal system and a new hospital, or addition to the existing hospital, are imperative, according to Galen Greenstein of Salem and Walter Hunston of East Palestine, county commissioners.

The home has been operating the past couple of years "at the sufferance of State Fire Marshal Wilson McLaughlin." Commissioners say they have no funds for major improvement ordered by

Russians Aim Space Ship At Distant Mars

Craft Scheduled To Pass Near Planet In Next Seven Months

MOSCOW (AP)—An unmanned Soviet space ship was estimated early today to be 140,000 miles on its way to Mars, Moscow Radio reported. The one-ton space craft was launched from a sputnik whirled into orbit Thursday.

The Tass news agency said all systems were functioning normally after the first few hours of the flight. The Soviets calculate the vehicle, called Mars 1, will pass close to the planet in something over seven months.

The ship is equipped with a camera and radio transmitters which—if all goes well—will send photographs of Mars and other data back to earth, giving scientists valuable clues to the old question of whether or not life exists on the planet.

Temperature inside the ship is being maintained by a thermoregulating system within the desired limits, Tass said. Solar batteries have opened normally and will ensure proper recharging of built-in batteries. The ship's radio transmitters were reported performing normally.

The indirect launching procedure—using an orbiting sputnik as a launching pad—was seen as greatly enhancing the Soviet Union's latest space achievement.

The Soviets said this is the first attempt to reach Mars, but American space officials have said the Soviets have already made two unsuccessful attempts at Mars and four at Venus. Soviet officials have admitted only that they launched a Venus probe on Feb. 12, 1961, but lost contact with it before it came near the planet.

An American ship is now headed toward Venus—the earth's closest neighbor after the moon—with a rendezvous expected next month. The Venus flight takes about two months.

Reds Start Dismantling Cuban Sites

U.S. Navy Keeps Blockade In Force Across Ship Lanes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Preliminary analysis of photographs made Thursday shows clear indications that dismantling of missile bases in Cuba is proceeding, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today.

A Defense Department spokesman told newsmen that the pictures show that missile launcher erectors have been removed from the sites.

Much of the associated launch equipment has been removed, the spokesman said, and cable conduits between control points and launching pads have been broken up.

The concrete pads for the launch erectors appear to have been broken up with an air hammer.

Certain areas of the sites have been plowed and bulldozed, the spokesman said.

Aerial reconnaissance over the island was resumed Thursday after a two-day recess for the visit of U Thant, acting Secretary-General of the United Nations, in efforts to arrange for U.N. inspection of the dismantling promised by Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester read this statement by McNamara:

"The secretary of defense announced today that preliminary analyses of the aerial photographs collected by yesterday's reconnaissance mission provides clear indications that work is proceeding on dismantling of the missiles."

Asked whether a blockade is still in force to prevent more offensive weapons from being shipped into Cuba, a Pentagon spokesman said the Navy ships continue on station.

Authoritative sources disclosed Thursday night that high altitude U2 flights over Cuba have been halted and the watch is being kept through low level photographic missions.

These government sources said there has been no scaling down in the degree of aerial surveillance.

The U2 missions over Cuba were scrubbed after one of the

Burglar Gets $250 In Hotel

Guest Room Rifled, Currency Removed

A burglar climbed through a transom at the Travelers Hotel during a guest's absence late Thursday night or early today and stole $250 in large denomination bills, police were told.

Michael Aessa of Columbus told police the thief took an envelope from the pocket of his coat, which was hanging in a closet. It contained a bank book and the $250 — two $100 bills and a $50, he reported.

Aessa said his room was entered in his absence between 11 last night and 4:16 this morning.

Police said the intruder pushed against the transom with enough force to break the latch and the bracket holding it. He allowed the transom to fall open against the inside of the door, then crawled through the small opening, officers said.

The thief evidently ransacked Aessa's room before finding the money in the coat pocket, officers said.

Killed As Car Wrecks

CINCINNATI (AP) — A car veered off Erie Avenue in east Cincinnati late Thursday night and hit an iron pole, killing a passenger, Lawrence Robert Brown, 21, of Milford.

Mikoyan Meeting Slated

Fidel Spurns U.N. Inspection Of Bases, Hints Red 'Discontent'

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro Thursday night rejected outright foreign supervision of the dismantling of Soviet missile bases in Cuba and again called for the United States to give up its naval base at Guantanamo.

The Cuban prime minister said "strategic arms," presumably the missiles, were being removed by the Soviets from Cuba, "but the rest of the weapons stay in our country."

Castro addressed a radio-television audience as Anastas I. Mikoyan, the Soviet Union's first deputy premier, discussed the Cuban crisis with U.S. and U.N. officials in New York prior to flying here late today. His mission apparently was to try to remove the road-block Castro threw up after being excluded from U.S.-Soviet arrangements for removal of the missiles under U.N. supervision.

Castro acknowledged that "we have some motive for discontent" with the Soviet Union. But he reminded his people of all the Soviets had done for them and asserted, "We are friends of the Soviet Union."

Castro said U.N. inspection on Cuban soil would be "one more attempt to humiliate our country" and would violate Cuban sovereignty.

Sources at U.N. headquarters felt that Castro either would soften his stand or would announce the Soviet Union had completed dismantling its bases and U.N. inspection therefore no longer was necessary.

Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant said after his conferences Tuesday and Wednesday with Castro he had been informed the dismantling of the bases would be completed by today. U.S. aerial observation, resumed Thursday along with the naval blockade, was expected to shed light on the dismantling progress.

Castro, in a two-hour speech taken up largely by reading a transcript of his talks with Thant, revealed that the Soviet Union had proposed that the International

Red Cross inspect its Cuba-bound ships to verify that they were not transporting arms. Thant said the Red Cross had agreed to the proposal provided Cuba agreed, but that he had communicated the proposal to the U.S. government.

There was no immediate comment from Washington.

In addition to insisting on U.S. withdrawal from Guantanamo, Castro repeated his previous demands for cessation of U.S. economic measures against his regime, attacks by Cuban exiles, and "violations of our aerial and naval space by North American (U.S.) planes and warships."

"If those guarantees of peace are not accepted," said Castro, "then there will not be any truly peaceful solution. We want a peaceful solution, but a peaceful solution with dignity."

Castro said there had been "some discrepancies" between the Soviet Union and Cuba and "we have some motive for discontent" with the Soviet decision to withdraw the missile bases.

This apparently referred to Castro's reported displeasure that Premier Khrushchev had not informed him in advance of his pledge to President Kennedy.

But, Castro said, "It is well above all to remember what the Soviet Union has done for us."

He cited Soviet backing "before each Yankee blow," the civilian and military technicians sent to Cuba, and the arms furnished his regime. And he revealed that "several months ago the Soviet Union decided to cancel the whole arms debt of our country."

Mikoyan, a top Kremlin trouble shooter and old friend of Castro, arrived in New York Thursday and conferred Thursday night with the Chief U.S. delegate to the U.N., Adlai E. Stevenson, and John J. McCloy, chairman of Kennedy's coordinating committee on Cuban policy.

"There is no doubt in my mind that he is going down to placate Castro," McCloy said.

DRIVE TO STAY ALIVE

An 18-year-old East Liverpool girl struck by a car more than three months ago while crossing the W. 8th St. "super-road" stretch in West End died at 4:50 a. m. today in City Hospital.

The victim was Miss Linda See, who resided with a great-aunt, Miss Ora McElroy, 210 W. 3rd St.

The girl was hit the night of July 24 about 9:37 while crossing W. 8th St. 75 feet east of Edwards Ave., according to the police department's accident report.

Police said she was struck by a 1955 model sedan operated by Mrs. Joan E. Burt, 33, of Columbiana R. D. 2.

The girl suffered lacerations of the chin and right leg and abrasions of the face and both arms and legs.

The woman motorist told police she was driving on W. 8th St. when she observed a group of sev-

IBOP, USPA Caucus Over Pact Details

Negotiators for the International Brotherhood of Operative Pottery and the U. S. Pottery Association held separate caucuses today at Cincinnati in their efforts to reach a new contract.

Spokesmen said the two groups would consider answers given by each to the union's proposals and the counter offers by the employers.

The present contract between the union and eight eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania companies will expire Nov. 30. The union is seeking a wage increase and improved health and welfare benefits.

There was no indication whether the conference would continue over the weekend, or as to how far negotiations have proceeded. The groups convened Tuesday in the Terrace Hilton Hotel.

Airlift From Germany

U.S. Planes Rush Arms For India

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—An American arms airlift got under way from Germany today to give India's hard-pressed Himalayan army better weapons to use against invaders from Red China.

The first of 10 U.S. Air Force C135 jet transports lifted off the runway at the big Rhein-Main air base near Frankfurt and flew off into heavily overcast skies. It was due in Calcutta Saturday.

A round-the-clock airlift was planned, and relief crews were flown to Calcutta to take the big planes back to Germany for re-loading.

The airlift is bringing fast-firing light infantry weapons, including mountain artillery, sorely needed to counter the Communists' superior firepower.

U.S. Ambassador John Kenneth Galbraith warned the Indians against expecting American arms alone to "work magic" against the Chinese invaders.

"The great task remains with the Indian army," he declared.

"We are happy to help with equipment to stop aggression but equipment is only part of the problem."

Galbraith said no American military instructors were coming with the arms, which he described as "standard stuff." He also emphasized there were no plans for U.S. military personnel to go to the frontier.

The ambassador told newsmen the United States is considering supplying the emergency arms shipments on a long loan basis but said the terms have not been worked out.

He said American economic aid to India would not be affected by the arms airlift—including recently announced loans of $24.4 million for thermal power development.

The first arms shipments were assembled from American stocks in Europe. Besides artillery, the first planes were bringing communications and transportation equipment, the State Department said in Washington.

One New, Other Renewal

2 School Levies At Stake In City Balloting Tuesday

When voters in the East Liverpool school district go to the polls Tuesday, they will decide the fate of two levies totaling 5 mills for school operations.

The Board of Education is asking renewal of a 3-mill levy already in effect and also is seeking approval of an additional 2-mill levy to be used to increase salaries of personnel employed by the board. Both would be in effect for 10 years.

The two issues will be listed separately on the ballot with the new levy first and the renewal second. The ballots go to voters in the city's 34 precincts plus six in St. Clair Township's precincts.

The board decided to place the renewal and new levy on the ballot after receiving a recommendation from the Citizens Committee for Better Schools following a series of meetings on school finances.

The income from levies on property taxes pays only 48 per cent of the school operating budget with the state providing the balance, board members declared. They pointed out the board has requested only two increases in tax rates since 1951.

With the revaluation of all real estate in the county scheduled to be on the tax duplicate for 1963, board members pointed out the two levies being requested, along with other voted school levies, will be reduced to provide only the same amount of money that would be received under the present valuation.

Renewal of the existing levy has been termed "a must" by board members, who pointed out the loss of approximately $142,500 yearly would cripple school operations.

The levy has been in effect for several years and represents no increase in taxes, they explained.

The new 2-mill levy would net about $95,000 more each year which would be used to grant salary increases to teachers and other employees of the board.

With the average home in the school district on the tax duplicate at $4,000, the additional 2 mills would increase the taxes by

Beck Cleared Of Charges In Loan Hearing

Ex-Teamster Head Acquitted In Action By Federal Jury

NEW YORK (AP)—Dave Beck, the former laundry truck driver who was a millionaire by the time he stepped out as head of the Teamsters Union, won another court fight Thursday night.

A federal court jury acquitted him of charges that he illegally borrowed $200,000 from trucking concerns. Acquitted also were the two trucking executives and three corporations charged with him as a result of the 1954 transaction.

But prison still awaits the 68-year-old former labor leader who preceded James R. Hoffa as boss of the vast Teamsters organization. Beck was temporarily released from a federal prison near Seattle to stand trial here.

The jury, seven men and five women, had tried to report itself deadlocked in considering the loan case. U.S. Dist. Judge Wilfred Feinberg sent them back into deliberation, and 45 minutes later the acquittals were announced.

A scattering of applause followed the announcement. Scores of Beck's relatives and friends had waited in the courtroom through the afternoon and early evening hours while the jury debated the case after a trial which began Oct. 1.

Acquitted with Beck were Roy Fruehauf of Birmingham, Mich., and the firm he formerly headed, Fruehauf Trailer Co. of Detroit; Burge Seymour of Washington, Conn., and the company he heads, Associated Transport, Inc., of New York; and the Brown Equipment and Manufacturing Co., a subsidiary of Associated Transport.

2 City Men Will Face Income Tax Charges

Hearings are scheduled Thursday at 9 a. m. in Municipal Court for two men accused of violation of the city income tax ordinance in affidavits filed late yesterday afternoon by Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson.

The defendants are Melvin L. Harris, 1071 Pennsylvania Ave., and Arden Jarvis, 1216 Riverview St.

Each faces two charges, failure to file a declaration of 1962 income before the deadline May 15 and failure to submit themselves to examination by the tax office on their supposed earnings for the year.

Interchange Opened As Link In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Fort Hayes Interchange—the connecting link between Columbus' north and south freeways—opened Thursday, giving Franklin County its first no-stop light through highway.

The freeway is part of Interstate 71 extending from Ohio 18 near Medina to the Franklin-Pickaway County line. The Fort Hayes interchange, however, has only one side open.

Early Ballots Given To 453

Before the deadline fell Thursday at 4 p. m., the County Election Board issued 487 civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the general election next Tuesday.

The total is up eight from the 479 issued for the last comparable election in 1958, according to Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board.

To be counted at the polls on Tuesday, the ballots must be voted and back at the board's office by noon today, O'Hanlon emphasized.

Overall issuance of the early ballots stands at 649 including 162 that have been issued to personnel in the armed forces, their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U. S. The total of all types of absentees in 1958 was 578, including 99 of the so-called "soldier ballots."

The "soldier ballots" may be issued as late as Saturday noon and they may be voted as late as noon on Election Day.

Meanwhile, the board is preparing for distribution of precinct supplies to presiding judges.

Supplies for the northern county area will be distributed Saturday from 9 a. m. to noon at the board's office in the Courthouse at Lisbon. Those for East Liverpool area precincts will be handed out Monday between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. at the board's office on W. 6th St., opposite City Hall.

Supplies for Wellsville area precincts will be distributed Monday at 6:30 p. m. at Wellsville City Hall.

Rhodes Rejects Claims He Given Teamster Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—James A. Rhodes, Republican candidate for governor, campaigned through Columbus, Cleveland and Cincinnati Thursday rapping the policies on finances and highway work of his opponent, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

In Cincinnati, Rhodes said he didn't have support of the Teamsters Union as asserted by DiSalle and his adherents.

In Cleveland, Rhodes contended DiSalle has been inactive on highway work but has been "spraying engineer contracts around to create good will for political purposes."

In Columbus, Rhodes asserted Ohio is near bankruptcy and that DiSalle is "making careful plans to invoke a state income tax if he is returned to office."

As for the Teamsters, Rhodes said, "I have not received one penny from the Teamsters. I have not been endorsed by the Teamsters and I have not solicited their support."

Postmaster Gets Convention 'Vest'

Postmaster Samuel W. Brown was one of eight postmasters in the United States awarded the "Order of the Vest" during ceremonies at the annual convention of the National Association of Postmasters in Pittsburgh.

Brown was one of those chosen from among the 35,000 members to receive the colorful vest and citation from the air mail committee of the Air Transport Association for his contributions to the advancement of the air postal system.

Brown and his wife along with four other area postmasters attended the national meeting. They were Frank Gruszecki of Hammondsville, Genevieve Karaffa of Summitville, Josephine Furey of Hanoverton and Robert McKelvey of Toronto.

Charles Puskar of Imperial was returned for his 12th term as secretary-treasurer and John P. Snyder of Oconomowoc, Wis., was given a second term as president. The session ended Thursday.

ing October at their invitation and "80 per cent seemed to be in favor of the levy."

Greenisen said the public can be assured every dollar will be used to the best advantage.

He and Hunston said they are aware that federal funds are available. "We intend to apply for federal help when the county can meet the matching-money requirement."

A check at the home Wednesday showed there are 84 residents, including 42 in the institution's hospital.

Supt. Russell Phillis said the number of patients has tripled since he took over four years ago, and there is a waiting list for hospital beds.

The amount of money spent for drugs and medicine soared during the same period, Phillis said.

Commissioners said the number of hospital patients coming to the home will continue to increase. "It's a trend of the times," said Hunston. "The old folks are taken care of at home as long as they are on their feet and the pension and Social Security checks come in, but let them get sick and the relatives send them to us."

Only 10 of the residents are able to help out with chores around the kitchen, laundry and barn. The home has 20 full-time workers on the payroll. One of the jobs is that of night watchman to protect against surprise fire.

County Home residents and patients come from all of the subdivisions of the county on the applications of mayors and township trustees.

Hunston said, "everyone in the county should realize the County Home is taking care of someone from his neighborhood."

Greenisen pointed out that the seven-tenths mill levy amounts to 70 cents per $1,000 property valuation. Using $5,000 at the county's average property valuation for tax purposes, the owner would pay $3.50 a year, if the levy passes.

Ohio Power Veterans Hold Memorial Rite

A memorial service for four deceased members, including two from the East Liverpool district, was held during the annual dinner meeting of 125 veteran employees of the Eastern Division of the Ohio Power Co. Thursday night at the Steubenville Country Club.

They included Miss Myrtle E. Finnie, a retired employee who died shortly before Christmas while en route to Florida, and James E. Sherwood, who was a victim of the city's cesspool tragedy in August.

Two new members from the Bellaire district were enrolled after completing 20 years' service. Officers headed by H. G. Parkinson of Barnesville were elected. Hobbies also were displayed.

Firemen Enroll Chester Member

Donald W. Reed, 33, of Louisiana Ave., Chester, was enrolled as a member of the Chester volunteer fire department at a meeting Thursday night. He will serve a year's probation period.

Fire Chief William Glover displayed a new hose connection obtained by the department, along with new hose and a fog nozzle purchased by the city.

Plans were discussed for the annual Christmas treat for community youngsters Dec. 22. The firemen will also take part in a Christmas parade in East Liverpool Nov. 23.

30,000 Teachers Due At NEOTA Convention

CLEVELAND (AP) — Nearly 30,000 members of the North Eastern Ohio Teachers Association (NEOTA) will hold their annual one-day convention here today. Schools in a 13-county area will be closed.

The teachers will elect officers and choose among nearly 40 general and sectional meetings.

Candidates for president of the association are Robert Harris, teacher at Buchtel High School in Akron, and Charles A. Burns, principal of Schaaf Junior High School in Parma.

Official Blow At Press Freedom

Actions of the Kennedy administration in handling information about the Cuban crisis have stirred suspicion in the Washington news corps.

The suspicion is that an administration keenly concerned with image-making and better equipped than its predecessors to make images gave the press corps a deliberate brush-off during the climax of the crisis.

The assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, Arthur Sylvester, has put substance behind the suspicion with an admission that the government "managed" the news about Cuba; that news was a weapon in the drive to force Russia to dismantle its missile bases. In other words, information was part of the strategy.

LEE HILLS, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, has criticized this strongly. It can be predicted with certainty that a kiss-and-make-up job will be forthcoming, to allay suspicion of the Kennedy administration.

But the damage has been done. In a pinch, the people's right to know was disregarded. The government sat on information to hatch its own chickens. Moreover, the government is still sitting.

For instance, what really was meant by President Kennedy's pledge to refrain from invading Cuba? Was it a signoff of all Cubans who want to get rid of both Castro and the Communists? And have we given Khrushchev a military base in this hemisphere he can use any way he pleases as long as he doesn't have any missiles in sight long enough to blow up key targets in the United States?

The Man With The Whiskers

The way we sized it up, Kennedy listens to Khrushchev but does not listen to Castro. Castro talks to Thant but listens to Khrushchev. Khrushchev had been trying to replace Thant with a three-member committee but now is glad he couldn't do it because Thant can listen to everybody whereas Khrushchev cannot afford to listen to some, even though he wants to know what they are saying.

If things get squared around so Thant can talk to Khrushchev and Castro will listen to Thant, Kennedy can talk to Castro and Castro will listen to him instead of Khrushchev and the latter can afford to listen to everybody because they won't be saying anything that will cause him to lose face, it will be safe to come up out of the bomb shelter.

Except there will still be one thing about Cuba that no one will be able to understand without a chart—the status of Castro.

He is the symbol of Cuban sovereignty, he says.

He is Mister Big, the man to see, the top banana, the fellow who makes decisions. This is the official illusion, and Secretary-General Thant is going along with it.

But who is really making the decisions in Cuba and the decisions about Cuba? Is talking to Castro like telling the man with the whiskers what we want for Christmas? Should Thant be in Moscow instead of Havana?

Time For Caution

A warning to Pennsylvania motorists on obeying state school bus laws might well apply to drivers in all states, including Ohio and West Virginia.

O. D. Shipley, traffic commissioner for the Keystone state, declared this week, "Recent reports indicate that too many drivers are callously endangering the safety of our youngsters by illegally passing halted school buses."

"Extra vigilance by drivers is even more necessary now as the days grow shorter and children will be waiting to board buses during periods of low visibility," he added.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said a few complaints on bus violations were reported last month, but motorists in general have been cooperative.

However, the patrol said all drivers should be reminded to be especially cautious during bus travel hours and to be on guard for children along the road or crossing rights-of-way.

Letter From Max

Dear Truman Twill:

A few days ago in your column you were moaning about how America had become too expensive for everybody anymore because of high taxes and high prices and besides you were too dumb to keep up with all the progress, such as turret lathes, blueprints and blowing up the world.

This started us to thinking, which is worse condition than your dumbness. Even you will admit that thinking, if you stop to think about it, is about as dangerous a thing as anyone can do. It has gotten as many people quartered, hung, boiled and beheaded as, say, robbery.

If you are going to worry about such trifles as the cost of living and ignorance, you are wasting your time. That will never get you anywhere. Nowadays you are supposed to THINK BIG.

You could hardly THINK any BIGGER than to consider what would happen if everyone became PERFECT. If all of a sudden no one had any faults, no one told fibs and everyone was kind to dogs and cats.

To be perfect, we would have to know everything and there would be no more dumb people like you and me. Can you imagine anything duller? We would know about turret lathes, blueprints, blowing up the world and whatever else you said you didn't know, which is too much to list.

As for blowing up the world: It might be nice to know how, but it would be nicer to know how not to, huh?

One of the first things that occurs to you in reflecting on the utopian world which would result if everyone were perfect is the

Purely Personal

Dear Nephew: I keep wondering why you would ask me to comment on Cuba when you are up to your armpits in comments on Cuba, all by experts.

Two explanations come to mind. The first will make you sore, so I will mention it now and get it out of the way.

You want me to say something so you can kick it in the slates and try to make a fool of me. This is what a woman does when she asks her husband to comment on her new hat. This is why men who are smart enough to be married say, "It's charming, dear." They've learned not to snap at the bait.

I doubt, however, that you would try to make a fool of me at this late stage. It wouldn't be worth the effort. Among people who know me best there's no point in proving against what already has been demonstrated. I am a fool. I admit it.

My life brightened like a redecorated saloon after I was able to admit this to myself. Before that time, I was always afraid I would do something foolish and my secret would be out. Afterward, I had nothing to be afraid of. There was nothing to hide.

Instead of watching my tongue, I now can say what I think on all occasions, and if I inadvertently say something that makes sense it's heart-warming to hear people mutter, "Hey, the old fool may not be such an old fool at that."

Experts tell me now they knew Castro was a communist all the time, but all I know is that he did not say he was a communist when he overthrew Batista. He was a revolutionist in a country ready for a revolution. That's all he needed to be. Cuba was a mess.

Red Carpet Treatment

Algeria Could Be Another 'Cuba'

By Victor Riesel

UNITED NATIONS
There is another Cuba in the making — this time in Algeria. It's pro-Communist leaders soon may well control the fabulous supply of iron, oil, uranium, and other war metals and fuels under the hot sands of the Sahara.

Yet there still is one strong anti-Communist force inside Algeria.

In the past week the State Department could have rushed to the aid of that force, which treats fear as it would a discarded beer can. But the State Department did not — just as it did not rush to the aid of a similar force after the big war, when the Communist cadres were trying to seize vital areas of Italy, West Germany and France.

That force in Algeria today is the UGTA (Union Generale de Travail Algerien) — the General Union of Algerian Workers. It is led by a man almost unknown to Americans, Abdennour Ali-Yahia, its general secretary and a member of the new Parliament. He was the only one with guts enough to stand up in the face of Fidel Castro's Comrade prime minister, Ahmed Ben Bella, and denounce communism in the opening days of that Parliament.

This State Department of ours has a penchant for ignoring our friends in other lands until we get to the brink. Mr. Ali-Yahia was here last May. He got to see nobody in high official circles.

IT BROUGHT to mind another Moslem leader. Away back in 1951 some AFL leaders brought this chap over. He was a lonely man wearing a tarboosh, talking to those who would listen. I recall sitting with him on the terrace of the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel. I remember him sighing over tea in the hot sun, something about how wonderful it would be if his land were as peaceful and prosperous "as your country."

His name was and is Habib Bourguiba — now president of Tunisia, a democratic land, a friend of freedom.

So it was with Ali-Yahia last May. Government circles had no time for him.

Vindication For U-2

By David Lawrence

Cuba Proves Need For Surveillance By Planes

The U-2 has been vindicated. Without the photographs made from U-2 planes flying over Cuba, it might have been difficult to convince the members of the United Nations and the world in general that the safety of the United States was actually threatened by missiles aimed at us from Soviet bases 90 miles away.

Instead of manifesting a sense of humiliation in May 1960, as if something wrong had been done, the United States should have stanchly and repeatedly defended the use of the U-2 by insisting that surveillance over the Soviet Union was absolutely necessary to protect the free world against surprise attack.

Incidentally, in the latest exchange of letters between the White House and the Kremlin, Premier Khrushchev complained about a U-2 flight recently beyond Alaska into Soviet territory. President Kennedy politely acknowledged that the pilot had made a "navigational error." Had it not been a moment of crisis in other parts of the world, this might have been an opportune occasion to defend the use of the U-2 — especially in the Siberian area, which is so close to Alaska. There is no better way to learn whether an attack is being mounted than by day-to-day photographing. Any substantial change in the progress of a build-up or in the mobilization of military forces can by this method be promptly detected.

THE U-2 HAS done a marvelous job of photography in Cuba in recent weeks. While the U-2 flights were discontinued over the Soviet Union in 1960, they were not abandoned wherever else they have been useful.

Just what do the U-2 photographs show? They do not reveal such things as the kind of troops on the ground, but there are many objects which are too large to be concealed. The appearance of things on one day can be compared with what has been introduced on the scene the next day, and so on. Constant surveillance is necessary in the photographic operation.

It takes a big staff of technical experts to analyze the photographs brought back by the U-2's. Thousands of feet of motion picture film are obtained and enlarged many times. Perhaps only a few feet selected from many reels tell the vital story.

But the U-2 alone cannot do the whole job of detecting enemy preparations for military attack. Secret agents, operating inside a country, are absolutely necessary. Also, evaluation must be impartial and without any preconceived notions by administration officials as to what policy the administration would like to follow.

A debate has arisen here as to when the Pentagon and the White House really found out about the Soviet missiles in Cuba, and why, if known earlier, something wasn't done about it sooner than Oct. 21-22.

AUTHORITATIVE sources say that the Washington government knew about the build-up from the time it began in August and was kept informed constantly by secret agents. Large crates were seen being unloaded from ships and frequent reports about this were received here.

Then why was the risk taken and no move made earlier to checkmate the Soviets? Why were 400 reporters and newscasters from all parts of the country told by high officials of the State Department at a special briefing on Monday, Oct. 15, at midday that "the threat in Cuba is not now a military threat" and that the United States had ruled out either invasion or blockade.

This continued to be the official word to the press for seven days, even though the U-2 photographs were analyzed and the "hard core" of evidence was available on Tuesday, Oct. 16.

There has been no satisfactory answer to the question of why a risk to the national safety was taken for so many days in a unclear age.

Prime Minister Macmillan has just told the British Parliament that President Kennedy made his decision on Oct. 20. What would have been the plight of the United States if Khrushchev or Castro had decided to fire the missiles or launch planes in a surprise attack on October 15?

It would have been of little avail for the administration then to have argued that it was still studying the "hard core" of evidence.

Also, why was the press misled for at least six days after the U-2 photographs were examined at the White House and State Department?

President Kennedy went campaigning on Thursday of that same week and didn't make any public announcement of a change in policy until Monday, Oct. 22.

THE FACT is that the United States government did know in mid-August what was happening and what it could mean militarily. That's what its intelligence system is for, and there is every reason to believe that the CIA and military intelligence units have been functioning efficiently and effectively in the Cuban situation for many months. Policy making is quite another matter.

It still is a mystery why the administration did not properly evaluate the data it had prior to Tuesday, Oct. 16, and waited so long before acting. Doubtless an opportunity will be afforded next January for congressional committees to discuss in executive session all the facts, just as happened when the Senate Foreign Relations Committee investigated the Eisenhower administration's handling of the U-2 flight over the Soviet Union in 1960.

The representatives of the people ought to be accurately informed whether the lives of the American people were or were not safeguarded from August to October 1962, when our principal adversary did establish missile bases in Cuba ready to fire at many American cities.

Strategic Area

Ladakh is a cold Himalayan wasteland where women commonly have three husbands and the ashes of Buddhist lamas are baked into cakes.

It would seem to offer nothing material to an invader except mountainous real estate, sparse barley fields and a sour beer called chang. Unfortunately for Ladakhis, however, their homeland is strategic.

Chinese Communist invaders are fighting Indian troops for Ladakh and Pakistan has an interest in it, too. Ladakh forms the eastern part of Kashmir, which both India and Pakistan claim.

Controlling lofty passes that lead eastward into Communist-controlled Tibet, Ladakh lies between China to the north and India to the south. The frontiers of Russia, Afghanistan and Pakistan meet in the region to the west.

Aside from occasional invasions, Ladakhis lived in peaceful oblivion for centuries. Caravans carried wool, salt, tea, and cloth through Ladakh, but left no new ideas. When the first airplane landed in Leh, capital of the district, Ladakhis tried to feed it hay.

Most of the 200,000 Ladakhis are Mongols who follow the Tibetan type of Buddhism.

Odd Facts

One of the oldest of English public offices is the post of "beer taster" or "ale conner". It was created by William the Conqueror as a measure to keep ale prices and quality in line. In olden times every borough had one. He was the community's recognized expert on the judging of beer and had the pleasant duty of sampling each batch of the local brew and passing on its merits.

Hays Will Close Vote Drive Here With Major Talk

Rep. Wayne L. Hays will wind up his campaign for a new term Monday night at 8 in East Liverpool, delivering "a major address" at the city Democratic headquarters on E. 6th St., Leo Payne, chairman of the party's city central committee, announced today.

Central committeemen and members of the men's and women's Democratic clubs will hold a joint meeting to hear the 18th District congressman's address. The hall will seat 200, but a public address system will be set up to carry his speech to others on the sidewalk, Payne said.

Rep. Hays will meet the public before and after his speech, Payne said. He will be introduced by the city chairman. A luncheon will follow.

All other county Democratic candidates are scheduled to attend and some candidates for state office may be present, Payne said.

Wellsville Police Chief Gets Post

Police Chief John Hephner of Wellsville has been named a vice president of the Ohio Identification Officers Association.

Hephner was notified of his appointment Thursday by Hugh L. Leggett of Columbus, superintendent of the Ohio Bureau of Identification and Investigation. Leggett was elected president of the state organization at a convention last week in Cincinnati.

Hephner will serve as vice president of the Fourth District, which includes Canton, Akron and Cleveland.

Leon Zahndt, a Lisbon patrolman, was elected treasurer at the convention.

The organization advances new identification means and works with the FBI in identification work. It also promotes circulation of new methods between departments.

Next meeting will be in the spring at Mansfield and the fall session next year in Columbus.

Goodballet Cites Youths' Conduct In 'Trick, Treat'

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet today praised East Liverpool youngsters and their parents for the minimum amount of vandalism reported in the annual Halloween "trick or treat" rounds Wednesday night.

"There were a few isolated cases of property damage reported to the police department, but on the whole I believe vandalism was held to a minimum," the mayor said. "I feel this is a tribute to both parents and youngsters, as it evidently was one of the most orderly Halloween celebrations in many years."

The mayor also observed that most motorists drove with great care Wednesday night, particularly in the early evening hours when the throngs of costumed youngsters were at their heaviest.

Prior to Halloween, the mayor requested parents to instruct their youngsters against vandalism and Safety-Service Director Robert Owen cautioned on the traffic dangers, warning both youngsters and drivers.

2 Wellsville Poll Workers Began Duties In 1920

Precinct A voters in the Third Ward in Wellsville will again find two familiar faces on the election staff — those of Mrs. Eva McCombs of Center St. and Mrs. Grace Payne of Main St., who have the distinction of being the first women to serve continuously in that capacity.

They have been on the precinct staff in their ward since 1920, when women's suffrage became effective. At the time of their appointment, there was only one precinct in their ward and the pay was approximately half of what it is today. And the hours often would not complete the count until 6 a. m. the following day.

Mrs. McCombs, who began as a clerk and is now presiding judge, has served more than half of her life, missing only four or five times in the primary and general elections. Mrs. Payne's service, as a clerk, was interrupted when she was in Canton with her husband, Jesse Payne approximately a year, and also when illness forced her to miss duty.

Council Eyes Aid On Roads At Ohioville

An application for federal aid for funds for road improvements and construction was authorized by the Ohioville Borough Council at its meeting Thursday night.

Daniel C. Baker, borough engineer, was authorized to make the application under the federal government's accelerated public works program.

Council is considering blacktopping the road and circle in Midland View at the top of the Midland Heights hill.

An ordinance providing for residents to obtain burning permits and setting the hours for burning was tabled indefinitely because of objections of residents.

Baker explained to Council that a portion of Grandview Ave. could be used for school bus traffic if graded. The expense would be slight, he informed Council.

The engineer also announced a new street light assessment will go into effect in the near future. All residents residing within a 250-foot-radius of a street light will be affected.

A public hearing on an ordinance covering the subdividing and development of land in the borough will be held at a special meeting Nov. 15 at 7 p.m.

Council also will discuss the purchase of an ash spreader.

Gelindo Maligani of Midland View was appointed septic tank inspector for the borough.

Mayor Elmer Gifford reported on police activities. The borough still is taking applications for auxiliary police to fill three vacancies.

Council voted to turn over $800 to the fire department and also agreed to let the county prepare the tax duplicate for the borough for next year. George Daniels Jr., president, presided.

Comedy, an attractive stage setting and a glamorous display of fashions highlighted the second offering of the Liberty Players Thursday night at the Liberty Theater of Wellsville.

"The Curious Savage" (Patrick) given in three acts, was directed by Mrs. Martha Wilson.

Miss Joyce McLaughlin, portraying the leading role of Ethel Savage, appeared in one of the new fashion wigs. Her daughter and sons, by marriage, were Mrs. Mary Lou Cunningham, Howard Guildoo and Robert Birch.

Residents of the slightly "mad" house, "The Cloisters," were Miss Linden MacLean, Harry Rose, Miss Carol Ross, Nick Radeka and Miss Kay Hendershot.

Glen Dixon acted as the doctor of the receiving home and Miss Shirley Andrews, the nurse. Chris McNicol, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNicol, was the little boy in the final scene.

The new lighting, recently installed, enhanced the stage setting and microphones are not needed in the small building as the acoustics are good.

Seemingly "type cast," all the parts were very well handled and the dialogue, just slightly spicy at times, brings many laughs. Several of the cast appeared in the initial production, "You Can't Take It With You," presented in August.

Edward Welch, stage manager, was assisted by Robert Deposen, Paula Rossi, Eileen Bush and George Grafton. Mike Weis was production manager.

Publicity was handled by Robert Garner, chairman, assisted by Elizabeth McNicol, Shirley Rose, Birch, Miss MacLean and Guildoo. Barbara Radeka, makeup chairman, was assisted by Jim Click, Jo Ann Welch and Miss Hendershot.

Properties were in charge of Frances Lowther, Mrs. Rose, Robert Andrews, Evelyn Nightingale and Mary Carroll.

The program booklet included photographs and the theatrical history of each of the cast.

The play will be repeated to night and Saturday at 8:30. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Queen's Naming Slated For Game

NEW CUMBERLAND—A queen will be named tonight at halftime ceremonies of the New Cumberland-Jefferson Union football game as part of the school's 13th annual homecoming celebration.

Kickoff is at 7:30 but activities will commence at 7:15 with the introduction of players and their parents.

Miss Betty Lou Porter, last year's winner, will crown the new queen, who will reign at the homecoming dance Saturday night in the high school auditorium.

Three seniors are competing for the queen's title and two juniors will serve as members of her court.

Candidates for queen are Joan Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Webster; Jean Lowther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lowther, and Sylvia Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Porter.

Mary Lou Price and Carrie Lynn Newbrough will serve as the court.

en young pedestrians crossing the four-lane highway single file. Miss See, who was the last in line, was struck by the car and knocked to the pavement, she said.

Miss See's death raised to 27 Columbiana County's traffic toll for 1962, compared with 15 at the same time in 1961.

She was born here Sept. 27, 1944, daughter of S. Sgt. Charles F. See of Vandenberg (Calif.) Air Force Base, and Mrs. Louise Behne of York, Pa.

She would have been a senior at East Liverpool High School this term. During the past summer she was employed at Dairyland. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and its Senior High Sunday School Class and its Youth Choir.

She also leaves a brother, Spec, 4C Charles See, at Ft. Dix, N.J.; two step-brothers, William Behne and Daryl Behne, and a step-sister, Darlene Behne, all of York; the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mae Wray, and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Sylvia Clark, both of East Liverpool.

Services will be held Monday at 10:30 a. m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. Albert Rodenhause. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Seaman On Ship

EAST PALESTINE — Navy Radioman 3C Paul E. McCoy, son of Mrs. Pearl G. McCoy of Sumner St., is serving on the amphibious command ship Pocono.

Levies

$8 a year or 67 cents a month, the board said.

Only Local had a lower school tax rate than the city district's 22.8 mills which is the same as Columbiana. Eight other districts have higher school tax rates and three of those — East Palestine, Fairfield-Waterford and Wellsville — are seeking additional millage this year.

The maximum salary of $6,100 paid to city teachers does not compare favorably with other cities of similar size and is even lower than that paid in some smaller neighboring communities, the board said.

Board members pointed out the maximum salary in Massillon is $7,120; Struthers, $7,200; Salem, $6,325; Columbiana, $6,200; Alliance, $6,876; Toronto, $6,873, and Leetonia, $6,353.

To compete with other cities, the board said it must plan for a maximum of $6,500 for classroom teachers. That would be for teachers with a master's degree and would be reached after 12 years' experience.

To attain the $6,500 maximum, grant increases ranging from $200 to $400 for teachers with less than a master's degree depending on training and experience, and boost salaries of non-certificated personnel by about $150 a year will require an additional $79,364 a year. In addition, the board also would have to assume an additional $7,936 in retirement costs.

The average expenditure per child for operating schools in 65 Ohio cities in the population range between 10,000 and 29,999 was $352.86 for the 1961-62 term. The high was $614.80 per student and the low was $273.10.

East Liverpool's expenditure was $296.25 per child and only a few cities among the 65 had a lower rate per student.

Board members said voters should remember the basic reason for requesting additional funds is the welfare of boys and girls in the school district.

"Youngsters in our community should have educational opportunities as nearly equal to opportunities afforded students in other communities as it is possible for us to provide.

"Good teachers are the most important ingredient in a quality educational program. To retain good teachers and to attract others will necessitate an increase in the salary schedule which can be provided by additional funds from the 2-mill levy if it is approved," the board said.

Band Boosters Slate Meeting At Salineville

A display of band uniform samples will be presented at a meeting of the Southern Local Boosters Club Monday night at 7:30 at the Salineville High School.

The meeting has been advanced from the regular Tuesday session because of the election, Mrs. Janice Brothers, president, said.

Fine Imposed On 2 Drivers

Two men cited for traffic violations by the State Highway Patrol were fined a total of $75 and costs today when they entered guilty pleas before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Jack Shields, 27, of 454 1st Ave. was fined $50 and costs on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way following a mishap Oct. 26 on the Y. & O. Rd. in Glenmoor.

John H. Dawson, 23, of Calcutta drew a fine of $25 and costs on a charge of speeding 85 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone Oct. 13 on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. Judge Chertoff warned both men their operator's permits will be suspended if they are brought before him again for traffic violations.

The patrol alleged that Shields made a wide sweeping turn as he pulled onto the Y. & O. Rd. from a side road, collided with an oncoming car, then went onto the lawn of a nearby home, crossed a restaurant parking lot and eventually went back onto the highway.

Asked by Judge Chertoff if he wished to give an explanation, Shields said he had nothing to say.

Dawson also declined to give an explanation of his 85-mile-an-hour pace.

"What was your hurry," the judge asked.

"I have no excuse," Dawson replied.

Hearing Slated For Corak Case

Beaver County Court has scheduled a hearing Monday at 9 a. m. to hear arguments on whether an indictment charging election law violation against Eli Corak, Midland mayor, county commissioner and county Democratic chairman, should be quashed.

His counsel, Atty. Frank Suffoletta and Atty. Robert Masters, earlier this week filed a petition asking the indictment be quashed because it was insufficient.

In its answer Thursday, the state contended the indictment should not be dismissed because the information is sufficient and the publication of a pamphlet was anonymous in violation of election laws.

The charge was filed by William Kovolenko of Aliquippa, an Independent candidate for the General Assembly, who claimed the unsigned pamphlet was aimed at him.

Corak argued the omission of the signature on the pamphlet was a printer's error.

Teachers Make Yule Party Plans

Twenty-five attended a meeting of the Beaver Local Education Association Thursday at Beaver Local High School at which plans were made for a Christmas party.

The holiday event will be held Dec. 7 for members and wives at Firestone Park at Columbiana. Mrs. Marguerite Strader will be in charge of refreshments, and Mrs. Lynda Costanzo games.

Four members will attend an Ohio Education Association salary conference Nov. 10 at Ohio University at Athens. They are Bruce Costanzo, Ernest Skidmore, William McGinty and Roy Cashdollar.

FBI Inquiry Asked Over Vote Material

Hancock County Prosecuting Atty. Floyd R. Tarr said today he has asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to make a "complete investigation" into the circulation of anonymous literature in the county in connection with Tuesday's general election.

The unsigned circulars, concerning the election of federal, state and local officials, "are in violation of state and federal election laws and any persons connected in any way with the preparation, distribution or circulation will be prosecuted," he said.

"These election laws prohibiting such anonymous publications were designed to protect individuals against just such malicious matters," the prosecutor said.

"If any person desires to accuse another, he may do so openly and make his identity known. That person must prove the truth of any statements, or be liable for the damages done to the person's reputation in a libel action," Atty. Tarr added.

Persons must reveal their identity on such publications in keeping within our system of government, Tarr said. "To have this any other way would be to subject individuals to such anonymous, seditious and malicious publications without recourse."

Pros. Tarr added, "Such anonymous publications are merely indicative of the low moral and ethical character of its authors, publishers or distributors, who are afraid to reveal their identity because of the possible legal consequences."

Commissioners Set Action On Area Road

Columbiana County commissioners Thursday inspected Township Rd. 916 in Liverpool and Madison Townships and set a hearing for next Thursday at 2 p. m. in a proposal to vacate a part not being used after it had been straightened.

In other business, the board hired Charles G. Spriggs of Wells-ville R. D. as driver for the retarded school children's bus. He succeeds Dan Saling of Lisbon R. D., who resigned.

The board also approved the transfer of funds in the support division and Juvenile Court as both are within their appropriations.

Commissioners will meet Monday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the Courthouse, which will close Tuesday afternoon for the election.

ALL THE SPECIAL-INTEREST GROUPS WANT YOU TO VOTE THEIR WAY ON ISSUE #1...

You are being pulled this way and that by every self-appointed authority on what is best for you. We believe the people of Ohio have a right to decide this issue on the basis of their own need for necessities on Sunday.

YOU VOTE IN YOUR OWN INTEREST!

The issue is as simple as this — if you want the convenience of having these items available on Sundays, vote YES. If you believe, for religious, moral, or any other reasons, that they should not be available, vote NO. Neither the present 131-year-old Blue Law, nor any subsequent court decision, has ever made any of these items clearly legal for Sunday sale. All of them can be taken away from you at the discretion of any local enforcement official, under pressure from any special-interest group.

This is the state wide ballot for Issue #1

These specific necessities will be legalized for Sunday sale if the amendment passes. If it fails to pass, they may still be available, just as they have been for years, although there is growing pressure to shut some of them off - particularly fresh milk, food, and gasoline. But your right to buy them is guaranteed only if the amendment passes.

1		PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
1		RELATIVE TO THE SALE, PROCESSING OR RENDITION OF CERTAIN COMMODITIES, PRODUCTS, AND SERVICES ON SUNDAY.
		(Proposed by Initiative Petition)
		A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.
Proposing to amend Article I of the Constitution of the State of Ohio by adopting a section to be designated as Section 21, to read as follows:
Article I
Section 21. No statute, ordinance or regulation shall be passed or enforced whereby the sale, processing or rendition of the following commodities, products, or services shall be prohibited on Sunday or any other day of the week, to wit: gas, electricity, telephone, telegraph, public means of transportation or any other public utility service or product; newspapers, other news publications, radio, television, or other public communications service; household fuels; motor fuels and lubricants for automotive vehicles; prescriptions and proprietary drugs, and household medical supplies; products used for personal hygiene and sanitation; milk, milk products, any food item or food product for human or animal consumption.
YES	SHALL THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO PROVIDING THAT THE SALE OF CERTAIN ARTICLES AND SERVICES MAY NOT BE PROHIBITED ON SUNDAY OR ANY OTHER DAY OF THE WEEK IN THE STATE OF OHIO, BE ADOPTED?
NO

This issue is on the ballot because half a million Ohioans throughout the state signed petitions to put it there.

This sentence is confusing to some people. What it means is: If you want the listed items available on Sundays, vote YES. If you don't want them, vote NO.

Let the people with an axe to grind vote to suit themselves...

YOU VOTE IN THE INTEREST OF YOUR OWN FAMILY'S SUNDAY REQUIREMENTS!

Miss Marcia L. Shinton, Dale William Allison Wed

Miss Marcia Leota Shinton wore a queen's crown of pearls and iridescent sequins when she became the bride of Dale William Allison the evening of Oct. 13 at 7:30 o'clock in the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith Shinton, 1041 Rubicon St., and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. Clair Allison of Georgetown R. D. 1.

The Rev. Glenn Brunstetter, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of mums, ferns, and seven-branch candelabra. Satin bows marked the family pews.

Miss Janet Everhart, church organist, presented a half hour of wedding music. Thomas Schneider sang "O Promise Me," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of bouquet taffeta designed along princess lines, with long, pointed sleeves.

Points of Chantilly lace, trimmed with seed pearls and sequins, edged the square neckline and were scattered down the front panel of the skirt. Unpressed pleats created fullness in the skirt and chapel train.

Her imported silk illusion veil was fingertip length. She carried a white Biba, topped with an arrangement of two white orchids and satin streamers. Observing the traditions, she carried a white handkerchief, the gift of her mother, and wore a blue garter borrowed from Mrs. Harold Gibbs. She had a sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. Sondra Allison, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of two-tone green velvet and taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant back accent. Her bandeau was of green velvet and tulle. She carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds and russet mums tied with matching streamers. Her charm bracelet was the gift of the bride.

Cecil G. Allison, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Ron Shinton, brother of the bride, and Joe Bryan. The mother of the bride chose a beige shaded knit suit with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue sheath with black accessories. White or-of the Beaver County Auxiliary of Catholic Social Service, will be speaker at a meeting of the Women's Guild of the Presentation Catholic Church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the church lyceum.

The Cheerful Gleaners of the Methodist Church will meet the evening of Nov. 13 in the social rooms.

Yule Gifts Requested For Reform School

LISBON — The staff of the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster has appealed to Juvenile Court, civic and service clubs, social and welfare groups and various religious organizations for assistance in providing a meaningful Christmas season for the boys.

Supt. T. L. Fultz said contributions by individuals and groups from the boys' home communities have helped greatly in changing the negative attitude of the boys to one of hope, and "often engenders in them a determination to become worthwhile citizens."

Columbiana County has three boys in the institution. A list of suitable gifts may be obtained from the Juvenile Court, or cash donations may be made as a gift purchasing committee is already making preparations to buy appropriate gifts so that each boy will be remembered.

"Slave Auction" Set

SALINEVILLE — The annual Salineville High School Latin Club "slave auction," in which services of freshmen Latin students are sold for a day, will be held Friday. Proceeds will be used for the annual field trip.

child corsages complemented their attire.

A reception for 350 was held in the social rooms. The buffet table was centered with a three-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple and encircled with baby breath and mums. Lighted tapers completed the setting.

Aides were Mrs. Earl Lawrence, Mrs. Joseph Robbins, Mrs. Norman Nicely, Mrs. Harold Baldwin, Mrs. Robert Farnsworth and Mrs. Morland Flora.

Out-of-town guests were from Alexandria, Va., Chicago, Pittsburgh, Alliance, Wellsville, Midland, Beaver, Lancaster and Philadelphia.

For her honeymoon to Virginia and Washington, the bride wore a black knit suit with matching accessories and her bridal orchids.

The bride was graduated from East Liverpool High School in 1957 and Ohio Valley Business College in 1958. She is employed in the office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

Her husband was graduated in 1955 from Chester High School and served two years with the Army. He works for the Jones & Laughlin Steel Co. at Aliquippa.

The newlyweds are residing in a newly-furnished apartment on Brighton Ave., Dixonville.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bride's parents at Meade's Restaurant in Wellsville. Bridal showers were held by Mrs. Eileen Carnes, Mrs. Melvin Reed, Mrs. John Everhart and Mrs. Lawrence.

Kiwanians Rear Choir Selections

Selections by the East Liverpool High School Concert Choir highlighted the meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday noon at the Travelers Hotel at which wives were guests.

Directed by Miss Arletta Helfrich, supervisor of vocal music, the choir sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Turn Back O Man," "Jacob's Ladder" and selections from "The Music Man."

A madrigal group presented an entertaining cantata, "Three Blind Mice," with William Krieger and Meredith Applegate singing the roles of the farmer and his wife.

Dr. Charles Waggoner was program chairman. Paul Blair, president, presided.

Key Club Plans To Aid Chester Pancake Fete

Plans to assist the Chester Kiwanis Club with the annual public pancake supper Wednesday and Thursday were made by the Chester High School Key Club at a meeting Thursday.

Highlandtown School Has Halloween Party

A Halloween party for the entire student body of Highlandtown School was held Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium in the form of an assembly.

The identity of students was guessed and prizes for costumes were awarded in each grade level, except the seventh and eighth, which were combined.

Cider and doughnuts, furnished by the Parent-Teacher Association, were served during the close of the school session. The parties were attended by homeroom mothers, who provided and served refreshments.

New Honors Due To Miss America In Homecoming

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — With the plaudits of her hometown people still ringing in her ears, Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, Miss America of 1963, was off today on another busy round of appearances.

Thousands of Sandusky residents turned out Thursday for a big homecoming parade and celebration and to see the beauty queen showered with presents.

Thirty-three floats and 13 bands took part in the parade. Because of prior commitments in her busy schedule, Miss Mayer was not on hand when Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and the Sandusky High School band started the parade along a two-mile route.

She was filming a television commercial, and her float, which brought up the rear, did not join the parade until it was half over. It was Jackie's first visit to her home town since being crowned Miss America at Atlantic City in September.

The Ohio Music Dealers Association honored Miss Mayer at a dinner meeting Thursday night, and R. Byron Griest of Massillon presented her with a plaque from the Ohio Music Education Association.

Her schedule today includes appearances at Huron and Mansfield.

Midland Schools Prepare For Emergency Evacuation

A committee of Midland public school personnel, headed by Supt. Ralph H. Jewell, is making plans for evacuating the four public schools in the event of a disaster alert.

Since the schools are not equipped with necessary facilities and individual homes could provide more provisions, an evacuation is more feasible, the committee said. Each of the four schools will have access to a transistor radio.

The committee includes William A. Walters, Lincoln High principal; John E. Wilson, supervising elementary principal; Mrs. Margaret Glumac, school nurse, and Samuel Rosatone, maintenance supervisor. Mrs. Glumac is presently enrolled in a Civil Defense class for nurses at the Borough Building.

The procedure proposed for evacuating students is:

1. — Each building will alert the students by means of bells. At least three persons in a building will be prepared to sound the bell.

2. — When an alert has been given, each pupil will go to his homeroom, get wraps and leave immediately for home.

3. — Pupils living on Midland Heights will use the buddy system and go to the home of a relative or friend in Midland. This will have been decided in advance.

4. — Students are to remain at home for a period of five minutes and return immediately to school in the case of practice evacuations.

5. — Teachers are to close windows, pull shades, turn out lights, close doors — not lock them — and leave for home or the home of a friend, which has been decided in advance.

6. — Janitors will be prepared to turn off all utilities and will be responsible for the physical care of the building. They are also to inspect the building to be certain that students are not hiding.

7. — Students in gym classes will be instructed to put clothes on over gym suits and leave for home immediately.

8. — Teachers without homerooms will check the building for lingering students.

9. — No running will be permitted in the building.

10. — Civil Defense patrols will be asked to guard the streets to expedite the movement.

A follow-through will be made on the length of time of the evacuation of all buildings. The schools hope the evacuation procedure can be followed in a 15-minute period. The group met Tuesday.

Lisbon OES Officers Serve In Convention Ceremonies

Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Beers, worthy patron and matron-elect of Iva Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star of Lisbon, took part in the installation march at the Ohio Grand Chapter sessions Thursday night at Cleveland.

John Liber of Homeworth Chapter was installed as worthy grand patron. Mrs. Marguerite Hale of Hicksville was elected worthy grand matron.

Others from Lisbon who attended the installation ceremonies were Mrs. George Hempstead, Mrs. Eugene Wise, Mrs. Bertha Lodge, Mrs. LeRoy Hanna, Mrs. Perry Arter, Mrs. C. E. Mitchell, Mrs. Joseph Dornon, Mrs. Sandra Keir, and Mrs. Clarence Trotter.

Team Mothers Meet

The Blue Devils Mothers Association met Monday evening at the high school with Mrs. Julius Lisko, president, presiding.

Plans were made for the football banquet to be prepared and served by the mothers Nov. 17 at Lincoln School.

Next meeting is Nov. 26 at the high school.

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. George's Catholic Church will meet Monday evening at the Parish Hall for a post-Halloween party.

Members are to attend in costume and bring a parish guest. Prizes will be awarded for costumes.

Mrs. Paul McGaffick is chairman of the lunch committee, assisted by Mrs. Urban Engel, Mrs. Fred Pastore and Miss Virginia Rabalio.

Mrs. Elaine Griffith, president of the Lisbon Business and Professional Women's Club, said the Ohio BPW Federation is sponsoring a personal development conference and business institute at Columbus Nov. 10-11.

Interested women may contact Mrs. Richard Andrus, personality development chairman, who will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Goodballet of W. Washington St. have as their guests her cousin, Mrs. Cora Tipton, and friend, Mrs. Elsie Ammon, of Cleveland. Weekend guests were her aunt, Mrs. Carl Seaman and Mr. and Mrs. Louise Seaman and son, George, of Marshall, Mich.

Mrs. Francis Gunn of Lincoln Way was returned home from a visit of a few days with her cousin, Mrs. Eleanor Wood, of Mineral Ridge.

Mrs. Dallas Hepburn of E. High St. has returned after visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stahl, of Birmingham, Mich., for the past two weeks.

Mrs. George Hayes of W. Washington St., who underwent eye surgery Tuesday at the South Side Hospital in Youngstown, is improving and expects to return home next week.

Susan Tolson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tolson of E. Chestnut St., returned home Wednesday from the South Side Hospital at Youngstown after treatment for a broken elbow received when she fell from a swing at home Oct. 13.

Midland Lions Hear Beaver's CD Director

W. C. MacMillen, Beaver County Civil Defense director, was guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Midland Lions Club Thursday evening in Derramo's Restaurant.

MacMillen was introduced by Henry Cannon, program chairman.

Business was conducted by Leslie B. Roach, president. Plans were made for Faculty Night observance Nov. 15, with Lloyd Murphy in charge of the program.

The invocation was given by Richard McDonald.

The Board of Directors will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 at the restaurant.

Civil Service Status Slated For 200 More

CHARLESTON (AP)—West Virginia civil service system coverage will be extended to about 200 employees of the State Road Commission as of next Jan. 1, Gov. Barron has announced.

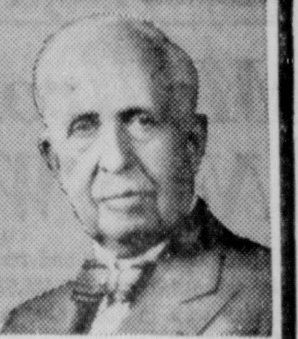

Barron said he will issue an executive order extending civil service to professional - type employees of the SRC. It will apply to graduate engineers and professional right-of-way, legal, engineering and personnel positions.

The governor's action is a follow-through on a recommendation by Road Commissioner Burl A. Sawyers, who had presented proposals based on a report submitted by Roy Jorgensen and Associates, a Washington, D.C., consulting firm.

$25,000 Project

Milliron To Build New Warehouse

New construction and remodeling estimated to cost $25,375 got under way in East Liverpool in October, including a $25,000 warehouse going up at E. 2nd and Union Sts. for the Milliron Co.

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet's office issued 16 permits, which also included authorization for two new homes. The dollar value of last month's permits is down $36,000 from the $92,375 shown in September.

The Potters Construction Co., contractor, already has launched work on the new structure for Milliron's. The one-story brick and steel structure will be 65-x-165 feet.

THE COMPANY said the new construction was made necessary by the increased demand for inside storage, particularly for commodities shipped in here by river, warehoused briefly, and then sent out by truck or rail to district steel mills.

Construction is scheduled for completion "as soon as possible," with the hope the building will be under roof before inclement winter weather.

The building was designed by Robert F. Beatty, East Liverpool architect.

Here are the other October permits, the persons to whom they were issued, the work authorized and the estimated cost of each job:

GEORGE FONE, to erect an addition to a home at 1550 Etruria St., $2,400.

Harold Seever, to remodel a house at 1631 Globe St., $800.

J. A. Sowers, to remodel a room in a building at 950 St. George St., $100.

Forrest McKinnon, to build a porch on a home at the rear of Brunswick St., $100.

Charles H. Sayre, to erect a house at Cartwright St. and St. Clair Ave., $5,000.

AMANDA HECKERT, to repair

a roof on a home at 833 Bank St., $475.

George Williams, to remodel a house at 1212 Avondale St., $350.

C. W. Buchheit, to place new facing on the exterior of a building at 631 1/2-633 1/2 Dresden Ave., $3,500.

JAMES W. Crooks, to erect an addition to a home at Sturgis Ave., $3,000.

Ellsworth Rardin, to install windows and siding in a home at 405 W. 4th St., $1,500.

Carl Ludwig, to repair the porch on a building at 412 W. 5th St., $300.

CHARLES Doland, to erect a house on S. Surrey Rd., $10,000.

Michael Coconis, to convert a building at 530 Sugar St. into apartments, $2,400.

William H. Crawford, to repair a garage at 1606 Etruria St., $150.

Nathan Weinbren, to remove porches and install shingles on building at 321-327 Broadway, $1,200.

Hancock Faculty Opposes State Ballot Proposal

The Hancock County Education Association, listing as members about 300 instructors in the county school system, today said it has gone on record opposing the "Executive and Budget Amendment" to the State Constitution on Tuesday's ballot.

Its affiliate, the West Virginia Education Association, is also opposing the issue — considered the most complex and one of the most controversial of the five constitutional amendments to be decided Tuesday.

The county unit said it opposes the amendment for seven reasons, among them "it would place control of the public schools under any future governor, and it would lead to conflict of authority between the state school superintendent and the governor's office."

The County Classroom Teachers Association earlier said it is also opposing the amendment.

Miss Elaine McAlpine of Weirton is president of the HCEA.

2 Signs Show Retail District To Travelers

Preparing for the day when the new city freeway takes most inter-city travelers around the business district, the East Liverpool Merchants Association has erected two signs on 3rd St. to point the way to the center of retail trade.

The 2-x-3-foot red and white signs read: "Business District. Park-Shop." One aimed at west-bound travelers is on E. 3rd St. near Broadway and the other, facing eastbound traffic, is on W. 3rd St. near Market St.

Route 30's traditional course through the heart of the city will be abandoned when the California Hollow-West End Freeway opens. The inter-city travelers will use E. and W. 3rd Sts. to get onto the freeway at W. 3rd and Monroe Sts.

Until the second stage of the freeway is constructed, they will rejoin present Route 30 in outer Dresden Ave.

The two new signs indicate travelers should turn up Broadway or Market St. to reach the business district. E. and W. 3rd Sts. are the temporary link between present Route 30 and the town end of the freeway.

On the opposite side of the coin, the freeway's opening is expected to have a favorable effect on parking in the center of the business district. Existing parking lots are expected to be lifted on the west side of Market St. and the east side of Dresden Ave., as they no longer will be part of the federal route.

Hancock Man Trains

NEW CUMBERLAND — James R. Blackwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Blackwell, 912 Ridge Ave., is undergoing nine weeks of basic recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The lights are scheduled to be turned on nightly for a week, with the electrical contractor footing the bill for the current, city officials said.

Meanwhile, the huge lights along the new freeway were turned on Thursday night for the first time, the beginning of a week-long test planned by the Collier Electric Co., which installed the fixtures.

Midland High's Yearbook Staff Announced By Sponsor

Joseph Chvasta, "Rodis" yearbook sponsor at Midland Lincoln High School, has announced staff members for the school year. They are:

Barbara Ordich and Marie Vranes, co-editors; Joan Tomec and Melva Vranes, literary editor.

3 Winners Named In Window Painting

Midland Lincoln High School has announced the three winners of the Halloween window painting contest sponsored last week by the Midland Chamber of Commerce.

Cole Young, an eighth grader, won a first prize of $5 for his painting at Gamble's Drugstore; Bill McGeehan, a junior, received a second prize of $3 for his painting at the McGeehan Agency and Jack Weiss, also a junior, won a third prize of $2 for his painting at Martell's Clothing Store.

Patricia Szurley, Betty Tarver and John Lona, photography editors.

James Hart and William Robertson, sports editors, and Bonnie Butz, Kathy Roach, Dan Cekinovich and Patsy Lento, general staff members.

The staff is working to meet printer deadlines in order that the Rodis will be ready for distribution in the spring.

A new activity of the Student Council is the morning devotions and announcements at the beginning of each day.

James Hart, president, gave the announcements and Ella Mae Wolfe and Bonnie Butz, members, read the Bible during alternate months over the public address system.

The activity is supervised by Lawrence Novak, art instructor.

The Girls' Leaders Club held a faculty play night Tuesday in the new high school gymnasium.

About 25 attended, including faculty members and guests. Appartus, basketball and minor sports were featured. Refreshments were served. Miss Eugenia J. O'Hara, physical education and health instructor, is sponsor.

Howard E. Thorne, audio-visual aids instructor in the Midland schools, is attending the Pennsylvania Learning Resources Association meeting Wednesday through Sunday at Harrisburg.

Thorne has served as past president and is presently a director.

The audio-visual and health departments of the high school have co-operated in a mutual undertaking in the Division of Disaster Medicine. They intend to incorporate within the curriculum a complete course utilizing the medical self-help training kit given to them by the Department of Health.

School Magazine Sale Runs Ahead Of '61 Campaign

Sales in East Liverpool High School's annual magazine drive are running far ahead of 1961, totaling $1,514 at the end of four days. The drive will continue through Wednesday.

The total is $640 more than had been registered at the end of the same period in last year's campaign. The goal is $6,000.

The high rooms are the senior homeroom of Miss Helen Capehart, junior room of Miss Carol Hand and the sophomore room of Richard Crugnale.

Miss Capehart's room was high in sales Thursday with Marvin Feldman as the top salesman in the school with sales totaling $207. Feldman won five silver dollars and a trophy.

Gary Garland with $91 was high for the Junior Class and Ron Kinsey topped the sophomores with $79. Other top salesmen included Anne Spore with $51 and Linda Aivalotis with $25.

Proceeds from the sale provide funds for the Junior - Senior prom, special assemblies, visual education and the Sophomore Party.

Hanover Township's Supervisors Convene

The Hanover Township Board of Supervisors met Thursday night for routine business at the home of Fred Martin, secretary-treasurer, of Hookstown R. D. 1. Ed Wilkinson, chairman, presided. Martin reported no further action has been taken on the board's resolution to set up subdivision rules. Various problems were discussed.

Martin said supervisors are now erecting 8,000 feet of snow fence at various spots in the township, preparing for winter.

Next meeting is Dec. 1.

Rabbi Guest Speaker For Midland Rotary

Rabbi David G. Shapiro of the Agudath Achim Synagogue in Chippewa Township was guest speaker for the Midland Rotary Club Thursday evening at the Club Riviera. His topic was "Dead Sea Scrolls."

School Supt. Ralph H. Jewell, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Sal Glorioso, president, conducted business and Ernie Dostaluk gave the invocation.

Next meeting is Thursday evening.

Hancock Teachers To Attend Workshop For Physical Ed

A physical education workshop will be held Monday for about 300 teachers in the Hancock County school system, with classes to be dismissed for the event, Supt. Robert H. Hall reported.

E. F. Beyer, former gymnastics coach at the University of Chicago and considered an expert in the field, will be in charge of the all-day program at New Cumberland High School.

The workshop is "designed to show teachers in county schools how a 12-year program of physical education is sequentially developed," Supt. Hall said.

Physical education classes are currently taught at all grade levels in county schools, directed by Mrs. Goldye Getschman and Carl Hamill.

Beyer, guest consultant for the workshop, was coach at the University of Chicago for 15 years. He has served on the AAU Gymnastics Committee, the U.S. Olympic Committee, the Pan-American Olympic Committee, and was chairman of the NCAA gymnastics committee for seven years.

Moore's Report On Loans Stirs Political Storm

CHARLESTON (AP) — Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., (R-W. Va.) says the Democrats are sore because he beat them to an announcement that has plenty of voter appeal.

A storm cloud with a political lining gathered Thursday night after Moore announced that federal officials had given "preliminary approval" to two loans and a grant for a Braxton County industrial project.

Two federal officials — Harold A. Williams of The Area Redevelopment Administration and Harold Brown of the Small Business Administration — disputed the announcement, explaining that there is no such thing as "preliminary approval."

At issue was an application for a $1.32 million ARA loan to build a wood products plant for West Virginia Forest Products, Inc., near Sutton, Braxton County. Also in dispute are an application for a $98,000 grant to help build a bridge providing access to the proposed plant site; and an application to the Small Business Administration for a $255,000 loan for working capital.

Moore said the $1.32 million loan and the grant had been given preliminary approval by ARA and that the second loan was approved by SBA officials at the state level.

Police Chief Resigns In Portsmouth Issue

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — The resignation of Police Chief Robert M. Edwards, effective today, is expected to end the controversy which has raged for months in the police department here.

Edwards had been the center of controversy since he was accused of taking bribes by former city manager George Meholic. The charge led to the calling of a special grand jury which indicted Edwards. But a court action questioning the jury's legality has halted the investigation.

While the controversy raged, Edwards was suspended from his post last May for 45 days, restored in June and fired by Meholic in July. He was restored to duty a week ago.

Edwards submitted his resignation Thursday.

Jury Indicts Ohio U. Professor For Killing

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — A 30-year-old university professor who admitted fatally beating his pregnant wife with a crow bar has been indicted on a first-degree murder charge.

The indictment by the Athens County grand jury Thursday against Gene Isaac Stees stemmed from the death Oct. 20 of Mrs. Helen Stees, 30. Sheriff Harold Shields quoted Stees as saying he killed his wife, then placed the body in a steel drum and dumped it into nearby Dow Lake. Divers recovered the body.

Steas has been a professor of education at Ohio University.

66 Received At Jail As October Prisoners

LISBON — Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan said 66 prisoners were received at the County Jail during October, in addition to the 45 already confined.

Seventy-eight prisoners were released during the month, 10 were conveyed to state institutions and four mental patients were taken to state hospitals.

There were 192 visitors at the jail during the month.

A total of 3,544 meals were served at the cost of $1,002.59, making the average daily expense per prisoner 85 cents.

Sheriff VanFossan said 1,260 papers were served and 4,984 radio transmissions were handled, along with 1,233 phone calls at the jail. Fees totaling $845.25 were collected by his department during the month.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE CITIZENS of EAST LIVERPOOL

Dear Parents:

A decision will be made November 6 which can be of major importance to your child and all other children enrolled in the East Liverpool Schools.

On that day you and other citizens of our community will be asked to express your opinion on two tax levies for your schools. One of these is a renewal of a three mill levy and the other is a new levy of two mills. Your Board of Education accepted the recommendation of the Citizens' Committee for Better Schools in asking for this new levy as well as the renewal of the three mill levy. At the present time East Liverpool pays its teachers considerably less than average for cities of our size in Ohio and even lower than some of the smaller communities within our own county. If we are going to be able to continue to attract and retain good teachers on our staff we must raise our salary schedule. The income from the new two mill levy would be used by the Board of Education to raise the salaries of the professional personnel employed by the Board of Education.

There are eleven school districts in Columbiana County and only one of these has a lower tax rate for schools than East Liverpool, therefore, this request does not seem to be unrealistic.

A QUALITY EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM IS MOST ESSENTIAL TO BOYS AND GIRLS TODAY -- PROBABLY MORE SO THAN EVER BEFORE -- THE MOST VITAL SINGLE INGREDIENT OF A QUALITY EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM IS THE CLASSROOM TEACHER. YOUR SUPPORT OF THE TWO SCHOOL ISSUES IS SOLICITED IN ORDER THAT YOUR BOARD OF EDUCATION MAY CONTINUE TO EMPLOY AND RETAIN STAFF MEMBERS WHO CAN OFFER A QUALITY EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR YOUR CHILDREN - - YOUR MOST VALUABLE POSSESSION.

Sincerely,

Ralph W. Betts

Superintendent of Schools

Publicity committee for East Liverpool School operating levies: Co-chairmen Harry Martin 1421 St. Clair Ave. and William Webber, 3124 Gilson Ave.

P.S. The 5 Mills Will Be Presented As Two Separate Issues On The Ballot

X	3 Mills	A renewal levy for school operation. No increase in taxes.
X	2 Mills	A new levy to raise salaries equal to average to other schools in county.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Paper cups are excellent for storing food in your refrigerator. Then, if you forget the food for a few days, there is no little dish, cup or jar to wash. Just throw the paper cup away! (This also prevents such things as applesauce glued on a bowl.)

I used to wash my throw rugs every week. Now I only wash them once a month. Because every week I tumble them for 20 minutes in my dryer with air and no heat. The same goes for my pillows, doilies, and couch throws. With the dust and grit removed, they certainly seem to last longer.

P. W. WEBB

DEAR HELOISE: For goodness sake, I do wish that some woman would tell us what to do with good, odd linen napkins which are left from our nice tablecloths!

In this day and age, we have been using paper napkins and now find all the tablecloths gone with-the-washings and oodles of napkins left. Can these be utilized? Sure would like some ideas.

MRS. O. O'DONALD

Anyone ever found a way to utilize these pretty things? If you have any ideas... write to Heloise in care of The Review.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: To help my boys know their own clothes, I sew a little piece of thread on the label of the garment, a different color of thread for each boy. Then I have no argument as to "whose clothes are whose."

READER

DEAR HELOISE: There is a little thingamabob in most of our bathroom wash basins! This is a little gadget that is about the size of a silver dollar that opens and closes the drain. I was silly enough last week to call a plumber when our wash basin stopped up.

I would like to save other housewives the expense I incurred by telling them that most of the time when the wash basin is stopped up, it is caused from hairs which have gotten down into the drain itself!

All one has to do is open the drain, put your hand around this thingamabob, twist a little bit to the left, and pull the whole gadget out.

The plumber just cleaned it off and replaced the thingamabob in the bottom of the wash basin, and lo and behold the wash basin drained perfectly!

MRS. HALLE TRUMAN

DEAR HELOISE: I literally ruined a brown linen dress by putting too much starch in it. Nothing I have done—outside of buying a new dress—seems to be able to remove the excess starch. Can anyone tell me just what we housewives do to remove starch?

ROBERTA PANGLEY
Anyone ever been able to remove excess starch? Sure would thank you if you would write to us. Send answers to Heloise in care of The Review.

Russian Wins Nobel Award

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—The 1962 Nobel Prize for physics was awarded Thursday to Soviet scientist Lev Davidovich Landau, whose probes into the mysteries of the universe helped pave the way for the launching of the Soviet sputniks.

The 1962 prize for chemistry went to two scientists at Cambridge, England, whose work unfolded secrets in the human blood. Dr. John Cowdery Kendrew and Dr. Max Ferdinand Perutz share the $49,656 prize for their studies of globular proteins.

Landau, 54, is one of the few Jews to attain a high place in Soviet science. He was awarded the $49,656 physics prize for "his pioneering theories for condensed matter, especially liquid helium."

Landau's research was halted Jan. 7 by an automobile accident. His car skidded on ice and crashed in Dubno, 75 miles from Moscow. He lapsed into a coma and was still unconscious in March when a Canadian neurosurgeon, Dr. Wilder Penfield, flew to Moscow to join French, Czech and Soviet specialists working to bring him around. Landau is reported making progress but there are doubts in Moscow he ever will recover fully.

Kendrew and Perutz have worked together at the newly started laboratory of molecular biology at Cambridge since the beginning of this year.

Hancock Group Told Road Plans

The secondary road program was explained to the Hancock County Rural Development Committee at a meeting Tuesday night in the agricultural office in New Cumberland.

Julian Wilson, county road supervisor; Manley Howard, district road engineer; Cleveland Poe, assistant maintenance engineer, and William Nesbit, assistant district road engineer, discussed the program.

The county has 146 miles of secondary roads of which 23 is dirt, 61 slag and gravel and 62 blacktop. Maintenance funds are available on an annual basis at $40 per mile for dirt, $200 mile for gravel and slag and $323 per mile for paved road. Improvements are made on the basis of use.

Alvin Hillyard, chairman, presided. Next meeting is Nov. 20 when rural zoning will be studied.

The largest public utility company in the world is the Bell Telephone System.

About 110 attended the annual community Halloween party held Tuesday evening in the social room of the Georgetown Methodist Church.

The committee included Miss Erma Mackall, Mrs. Glenn Mackall, Mrs. Fred Campbell Jr. and Eileen and Kathleen Cromer. Judges for costumes were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmidt and Mrs. Curtis Finley.

Prizes for costumes were won by Toni, Gregory and David Trimble, David Brandon, Laurie Doak, Gregory Butcher, Daniel Miles, Marcy Mackall, Judy Nash, Sandra Reed, Jo Ann McHaffie, Mary Olive Laughlin, Jerry Campbell, Vincent Golden and William Alger.

The Friendship Class of the Methodist Church held a meeting and Halloween masquerade party Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmidt.

Mrs. Schmidt, president, conducted business. Plans were made for a rummage sale Nov. 13-14 at Midland with Mrs. John Nash.

teacher, in charge. New shrubbery around the church is a gift of the class.

Prizes for costumes were won by Mrs. Willie Durham and Paul Brandon.

The class will make candy after the business session at the meeting Nov. 26 in the social room.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Weaver of Upland, Calif., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Reed, and other relatives in the vicinity.

Miss Blanche Gray and Fred Nelson of Cleveland were guests Sunday of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brooks.

Linda Schmidt of Washington, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmidt. She is employed in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bible and family were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Doak.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soisson and family visited Sunday with their daughter, Marilyn Soisson, who is a student at Edinboro (Pa.) State Teachers College. She is training for elementary teaching.

Wellsville Cubs Receive Banner

A scout banner for exceeding its quota of new members was received by Cub Pack 22 of Wellsville when it met Tuesday night in the First Christian Church basement.

Bobcat pins were presented Patrick Dickey, Michael Pelley, James Roberts, Michael Greathouse, Mark Wright, Jeffrey Huston, Mark Bush, Patrick McNicol, Thomas Shaffer and Bruce Simms. Richard Shinn received a gold arrow under bear. Mrs. Betty Figley and Mrs. Natalie Lewis received den mother pins. Round-up patches were awarded Robert Figley, David Pelley, James Checkler, Charles Lewis, Patrick Doyle, Dale Pritchard and Brian Kessel. Denner stripes were presented Roger Drummond.

The officers and Richard Payne, district commissioner, judged the 34 boys, who were in Halloween costumes. Prizes went to James Roberts, Patrick

Dickey, Roger Drummond, Mark Bush and Patrick Doyle. Mrs. Lewis' Den 6 had the opening and closing exercises and won the attendance banner. Michael Dickey was introduced as chief of Den 3. Refreshments were served.

7th Day Church Sets No Amendment Stand

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's Seventh-Day Adventist ministers have decided to take no official stand on the proposed Sunday closing law amendment to the Ohio Constitution.

Dr. D. W. Hunter of Mount Vernon, president of the Ohio Conference, said after a meeting here Thursday that the ministers will adhere to the church's historical opposition to all types of Sunday laws.

He added: "Coerced or enforced Sunday laws remove freedom of choice from the individual."

Send questions to: P. O. Box 1174 Louisville 1, Ky.

Medical Mirror

Diseased Tonsils

Q. I have trouble with my back but my doctor has never taken an x-ray. Could my diseased tonsils cause this trouble?

A. Your doctor apparently considers x-ray pictures unnecessary but if it would ease your mind, ask him about it. Yes, diseased tonsils can contribute to aching muscles and joints.

B.C.G. Vaccine

Q. What is your opinion of B.C.G. vaccine to prevent tuberculosis?

A. We submitted this question to one of our editors who has spent many years in foreign lands where B.C.G. vaccine has been extensively used. Here is his answer. "I have observed the use of B.C.G. vaccine in other countries during the last twenty years. It is of definite value. One group of investigators found that the vaccine gives better than 70 percent protection. However, we have been slow to adopt its use in the U.S.A."

Q. Why do some children eat dirt? Is there something in dirt that they need?

A. It is natural to assume that the abnormal craving for unnatural food (the medical term for this condition is "pica") is due to a lack of something in the diet. Doctors who studied a large number of children with pica concluded that iron deficiency might be the most important single cause. To test this theory the children were given large doses of iron by injection. They went right on eating dirt, chalk, plaster, and what-have-you. The cure of pica, like the cause, seems very complicated, and neither has been solved.

Fried Foods

Q. I have a stomach (peptic) ulcer. My doctor advises that I avoid fried foods but he didn't explain why. Can you?

A. The heating of fats, as in frying, causes chemical changes in the fats that increase in degree the higher the temperature. Frying may raise the temperature to a point where the fat is "polymerized," with consequent loss of digestibility. Unsaturated fatty acids may also be destroyed and irritant substances formed. Hard-to-digest foods should, of course, be avoided by persons with stomach ulcer.

Struck Paper Published At Another Plant

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Daily News, announcing in a page one banner that it was "struck—not struck out!" published a 16-page edition today at the plant of the Journal-American.

The paper had little advertising but carried most of its daily features. Technically, it was a facsimile of the normal Daily News, except that the tabloid had 92 pages in its prestrike Thursday morning editions.

The maneuver of printing the paper at the Journal-American, the Hearst afternoon newspaper in the city, was unique in modern New York newspaper history.

The News' own plant was closed down Thursday by a strike of editorial and commercial employees who belong to the American Newspaper Guild. It was the first Guild strike in New York since 1955.

The News, largest circulation newspaper in the country with a daily sale of nearly 2 million, was chosen by the Guild as its first target in a wage dispute with all seven major Manhattan dailies. Other publishers immediately offered facilities to the News.

The News said its strike edition had been prepared at its own office on 42nd St. at 2nd Ave. by several hundred editorial department heads and non Guild members.

The copy was then taken to the Journal-American plant on South street near the southern tip of Manhattan. It did not pass through the Journal's city room—where many employees are represented by the Guild—but was sent directly to the afternoon paper's composing room.

Members of eight mechanical unions and the Newspaper and Mail Deliverers Union made no attempt to stop the shift in publications.

The New York unit of the Guild, an AFL-CIO union of editorial and commercial newspaper employees, had announced before the strike that any settlement reached with the News would be applied to the other six dailies, and if they refused the terms they would be struck one at a time.

The Guild, which has thrown up picket lines around the News building in Manhattan and its plant in Brooklyn, was angered by the maneuver of printing the news at the Journal-American plant and called it "a mockery of the use of the mediation service, of the Guild and everybody else in letting the public think that they (the News management) were interested in settling the strike."

But the Guild made no move to interfere with the operation, nor did any of the craft unions.

New Wellsville Troop Will Convene Monday

The first meeting of Boy Scout Troop 22 of the Wellsville First Christian Church will be held Monday at 7 p.m. in the church basement. Boys between 11 to 17, interested in becoming a scout, are invited.

The troop was activated Monday night with the signing of five boys as charter members.

Members of the scout committee present were Wilton McElroy, committee chairman, and Edison Meadows, institutional representative. Also present were Frank Rossi and Norman Brown, commissioners; E. L. Bemis, scoutmaster; Donald Hutchison, cubmaster of Pack 22; Bill Hughes, scoutmaster of Troop 14, and four Boy Scouts of Troop 14.

2 Area Servicemen Serve In NATO Games

Two area soldiers recently participated in FALLEX, a large-scale NATO exercise in Germany. They are Pvt. Christopher Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Long, 188 E. Main St., East Palestine, and Pfc. Thomas E. Earich, 24, son of Clyde N. Earich of Salineville R.D. 1, and husband of Mrs. Carol Ann Earich, 91 E. Main St. Salineville.

Long, 20, is a radio repairman in the 26th Signal Battalion's Co. A in Ludwigsburg. He is a 1960 graduate of East Palestine High School and went overseas in January. Earich is a rifleman in Troop A of the 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment's 1st Reconnaissance Squadron in Baumholder. He attended Salineville High School and arrived overseas in May.

Dentist Dies At 69

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dr. Ray G. Wells, 69, who retired in 1957 after 37 years as a dentist in Lorain, died Thursday in the Valley Spring nursing home here.

The seven systems of the human body are the digestive, excretory, reproductive, respiratory, circulatory, nervous, and muscular.

U.S. Builds Up Forces At Florida Sites

Florida seethed with military activity today as the United States maintained its blockade and aerial checkup of Cuba, and Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro insisted his nation would not accept inspection of the removal of Soviet missile bases.

Florida Gov. Farris Bryant toured the buildup in the Key West area, 90 miles from Havana, late Thursday.

The governor told pilots who are hanging an aerial umbrella over the Florida Straits that he had a great feeling of well being after watching their operations.

The governor later spoke at a seafront restaurant only 50 feet from an Army radar installation ringed with sandbags and barbed wire.

Armed jet fighters blasted overhead as he spoke.

Elsewhere in south Florida, a 400-bed naval hospital at Opa-locka near Miami was painted and stocked for any eventuality. Nearby, 35 emergency field hospitals stood ready for use, along with 50 ambulances.

The troop concentration in the area was so heavy that hundreds of soldiers were sleeping in tents along the road to the base.

At Port Everglades, 30 miles north of Miami, four landing ships were beached, with their bow doors open. There was no evidence of troops aboard.

Security at the port was increased.

Equipment and a few fresh troops arrived in Key West Thursday. Among the new arrivals were Navy and Air Force pilots. The fliers who have been pounding out missions steadily since the crisis began, have reported they are very tired, but there has been no letup.

City Native Completes Training For Jet Pilot

Lt. Robert B. Fowler of East Liverpool has received his wings as a jet pilot after graduation from a 35-week training program at Moody Air Force Base in Valdosta, Ga.

Son of Mrs. Dorothy Fowler and grandson of Mrs. Ann Bell, both of Park Blvd., he is married to the former Linda Weston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Weston, 1508 Wyoming Ave. They have a daughter, Jeni Lynn, and a son, Robert.

Assigned to duty as a tactical jet fighter pilot, he will be stationed at Charleston (S.C.) Air Force Base. He was graduated from East Liverpool High School and Ohio University, where he received a bachelor of science degree.

Man Pleads Guilty And Asks Probation

A probation investigation has been ordered by Judge Joel H. Sharp for Gail P. Freeman, 26, of 257 Center St., East Liverpool, who changed his plea to guilty to an indictment of burglary of the Kuta Radio & Television store in Wellsville June 14, 1961, at a hearing Thursday.

Freeman was indicted for the theft of over $1,000 worth of radio and television equipment. Dale Carnes of Wellsville received probation for his part in the burglary.

The indictment was not served on Freeman until his recent release from the West Virginia Penitentiary at Moundsville, where he was committed for a Chester burglary. He was released on $1,500 bond pending a report on his probation request.

Federal Aid Due Projects In Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP)— Welfare Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze has announced that six Ohio projects are included in plans to expand the nation's health facilities under the accelerated public works program.

The federal share in the Ohio projects totals more than $2.3 million.

The Ohio projects, and the federal share to help finance them, include:

Green Springs, new nursing home at Villa Maria Nursing Home $696,000, including $200,000 of Hill-Burton funds; Warren, remodeling at Trumbull County Tuberculosis Hospital $246,780, including $133,333 of Hill-Burton funds; Lorain, addition at Lorain City Health Center $22,500; Middletown, 162-bed addition and alterations at Middletown Hospital $1,132,062.

Police Learn Brunch Hours Of Brinks Man

FRANKLIN, Ohio (AP)— The sight of a Brinks armored truck apparently abandoned along Ohio 73 east of here Thursday prompted a call to the Warren County sheriff.

Deputies sped to the scene. Finding no sign of life around the truck, the officers banged on the windows. A surprised face peered out at them.

It was the driver eating his lunch.

Deaths and Funerals

Lisbon Widow Claimed At 87

LISBON — Mrs. Edna B. Morrow, 109 S. Lincoln Ave., was found dead in her bed late Thursday morning, having died sometime during the night. She was 87.

Born here Sept. 28, 1875, to Henry S. Burnett and Alice Ward Burnett, she spent her entire lifetime in this area. She was a former antique dealer and her husband, John A. Morrow, who was a building contractor, died in 1935.

Mrs. Morrow was a member of the Christian Church, the Order of Eastern Star and the Tuesday Afternoon Club.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Hazel Steele and Mrs. Lucile Potts, both of Lisbon.

Services will be held Saturday at 3 p.m. at the Henry Funeral Home by the Rev. Paul T. Gerard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery.

Friends may call any time today at the funeral home.

Earl Martin

Services were held Thursday afternoon for Earl Martin, 55, of Pomona, Calif., a native of Toronto, who died Monday afternoon at 4:45 at a Los Angeles hospital following a long illness.

The rites were held at the Todd Memorial Chapel in Pomona with Dr. Harry C. Culver of Trinity Methodist Church of Pomona officiating. Burial was in Pomona Cemetery.

Mr. Martin was born March 25, 1907, at Toronto and later resided in East Liverpool and Wellsville. He moved to California from East Liverpool in 1950. He had been a railroad clerk with the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. for many years and was a member of the Railway Clerks Union.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Adda V. Swickard Martin, formerly of East Liverpool; a brother, James E. Martin of East Liverpool, and a sister, Mrs. Carrie Cunningham of Durand, Mich.

Miss Faye Elliott

Miss Faye G. Elliott, 65, of Massillon, a native of Wellsville, died Thursday morning at a hospital in Massillon.

She resided for some years in Cleveland before going to Massillon, living there about 30 years. She was the daughter of the late John George Elliott and Blanche Adams Elliott. She was a member of the Central Presbyterian Church of Massillon.

Her only survivor is a sister, Mrs. Eria Hamerle of East Cleveland.

Services will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Gordon-Shadnagle & Hollinger Funeral Home in Massillon. Graveside services will be held Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at the Springhill Cemetery in Wellsville by the Rev. Bruce Davis, pastor of the Wellsville Covenant United Presbyterian Church.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9.

Frank Jordan

Frank W. Jordan, 85, of Elyria, a former resident of Wellsville and Summitville, died suddenly Thursday morning at his home.

Mr. Jordan was born in Columbiana County March 19, 1877, to Willis Jordan and Mary Jane Jordan. A retired millworker, he left this area many years ago.

He was a member of the Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Mary Kriehbaum, and a brother, William Jordan, both of Alliance, and a half-brother, Paul Jordan of Wellsville.

Services will be held Saturday at 9:30 a.m. in Elyria with burial in Alliance.

Catherine Klucarich

Mrs. Catherine Klucarich, 808 Midland Ave., a resident of Midland since 1905, died this morning at 5 at City Hospital, after an illness of several days. She was 58.

Mrs. Klucarich was born June 28, 1904, in Rankin, Pa. She was a member of the Presentation Catholic Church, Court Midland 653, Catholic Daughters of America, the Confraternity of Christian Mothers and the Women's Guild, both of the church, and the Croatian Fraternal Union Lodge 335 of Midland and its Mothers Club and Croatian Women's Club.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Helen Petrush of Midland and Mrs. Dorothy Davis of East Liverpool; a sister, Mrs. Anna Medich of Midland and three grandchildren.

A Requiem Mass will be sung Monday at 10 a.m. at the church by Fr. Francis E. Paul. Burial will be in Beaver Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Cannon Funeral Home in Midland after noon Saturday.

V. Roger Sanford

Services for V. Roger Sanford of Macrum St., Dixonville, who died Thursday morning at City Hospital, will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the First Church of the Nazarene.

The Rev. James Hunton will officiate. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Kenneth Langfitt

NEW CUMBERLAND — Services for Kenneth Clyde Langfitt of Alexandria, Va., a former resident of New Cumberland, will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Turley Funeral Home by the Rev. A. R. Mansberger of Weirton.

Burial will be in Union Cemetery, Pughtown.

He died Tuesday at Alexandria General Hospital.

Friends may call at the funeral home any time.

Sylvia Richardson

COLUMBIANA — Mrs. Sylvia Richardson, 61, former teacher at Washingtonville School, died this morning at 7:30 at her home after an illness of 10 years.

Mrs. Richardson was born July 5, 1901, in Pittsburgh to Thomas B. Hyland of Columbiana and the late Mrs. Hyland. She was married to Clyde A. Richardson in August 1923. She was a member of the Methodist Church, the Historical Society, Garden Club and the Sorosis Club, all of Columbiana.

She also belonged to the Garden Forum of the Youngstown Hobby Club and the Salem City Hospital Women's Auxiliary, serving as its first president. She was the founder of the Philogast Clubs. She attended the College of Wooster.

In addition to her husband and father, she is survived by a son,

Clyde (Dick) Richardson Jr. of Columbiana; two sisters, Mrs. Marie Laughlin of Wellington, Ohio, and Miss Zelma Hyland of Paris, France, and six grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Warrick Funeral Home. Burial will be in Columbiana Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Officials Check Alleged Theft Of Gas Credit Card

Robert Looman of Lawrenceville, near Chester, is awaiting arraignment today in Municipal Court while officials investigate the circumstances behind an affidavit alleging he stole an East Liverpool man's gasoline credit card and used it for a trip through the west.

The charge against Looman was filed by George D. Lucas, 353 Sarah St. It alleges the Humble Oil Co. card was taken Aug. 20. The affidavit was signed Wednesday.

Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark said he and Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi are continuing investigation of the case because of conflicting claims of the defendant and the prosecuting witness.

Lucas told the officials his credit card was used to obtain gasoline and oil in the west. He said he later received copies of the bills through the oil company, as is the practice.

But he was unable to give the total of the credit allegedly obtained or the states in which the card allegedly was used because he sent the statements back to the oil company, Lucas said.

Jethro Man Gets 60-Day Sentence On Theft Charge

A 28-year-old Jethro man was given a 60-day jail term today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff when he pleaded guilty to a charge he stole clothing valued at $20 Tuesday from King's Bargain Center on E. 5th St.

Donald McDole of Leonard St. told the judge he sold or traded the property to obtain food for his seven children, but authorities said the investigation disclosed that it was swapped for beer. The loot included men's clothing such as trousers, shirts and jackets.

The charge against McDole was filed today by Martin Silverman, president of the concern which operates the retail outlet.

Before sentencing McDole, Judge Chertoff told the defendant he recalls that he has been in court previously on non-support charges filed by his wife.

5 Motorists Fined By Palestine Judge

EAST PALESTINE — Five motorists were fined a total of $55 and costs — with fines to be reduced providing they see a safety film — at hearings Thursday in County Judge Herbert Arfman's court.

Two others forfeited bonds. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Richard A. Perkins, 22, of East Liverpool R. D. 1, was fined $5 and costs for crossing the yellow line; Richard I. Falk, 23, at Negley R. D. 1, $5 and costs for driving an unsafe vehicle; John Steinbinder, 34, of East Palestine, and William E. Garwood, 24, of Lisbon R. D. 5, $15 each for reckless operation, and Barry M. Pierce, 19, of Lisbon R. D. 1, $15 and costs for speeding.

Richard P. Deutch of Cleveland forfeited $25 for reckless driving and John Hayman of Imperial, $20 for passing on a curve.

Woman Fined, Jailed On Shoplifting Charge

EAST PALESTINE — Miss Bertha Tennis, 51, of N. Market St. Ext. was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to six days in jail Thursday night by Mayor Robert Harding on a shoplifting charge.

She was cited last week on a complaint filed by an official of the J. J. Newberry Co. store, who said she took $10 in clothing. She formerly resided at Negley.

A 17-year-old area youth is slated for a hearing before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on a similar charge based on thefts a number of weeks ago.

70 Attend Card Party Of PTA At Midland

About 70 attended a public card party sponsored by the Midland 7th St. Parent-Teacher Association, Thursday evening at the school. Prizes were awarded winners in various card games. Proceeds will be used for activities of the pupils.

The committee included Mrs. Joseph D'Itri and Mrs. Charles Flaime, assisted by Mrs. William D. Orr, Mrs. Pete Vuich and Mrs. Jack Balsar, president.

The special prize went to Mrs. Raymond Conjeski.

The unit will meet Thursday afternoon at 3. Open house is scheduled Nov. 14 beginning at 7 p.m.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from "A Patient Patient" was especially poignant because I, too, was in a state mental hospital.

The experience added an important dimension to my life. It gave me a rich appreciation for simple things which most people take for granted. I saw miracles there—lost souls rescued from a world of silence, anguish and darkness.

After my recovery I wanted to show my gratitude to the dedicated people who labor in the field of mental health. They are, for the most part, underpaid and overworked.

I had no particular talent or training so I offered my services as a volunteer.

To the patient who never has had a visitor I am a symbol of the outside world. I needed no training to say "hello." It takes no special talent to play a simple game, or to reassure a patient that he has not been completely forgotten.

When I leave the hospital I am fulfilled because I've helped make someone's day a better one. There is no feeling quite like it.—SYRACUSE VOLUNTEER.

Dear Volunteer: You've learned a valuable lesson. When we pull a brother up a steep and tortuous hill we get nearer to the top ourselves. Thanks for writing.

Teen-Ager's Problem

Dear Ann: Usually parents write in and ask you what to do about their teen-agers. Well, here's a switch. I'm a teen-age girl who wants to know what to do about my 43-year-old father.

In his younger days he used to be a bar-bell boy—you know, the kind who had pictures taken on the beach with one girl on each shoulder and two at his feet. A lot of beer has gone down the hatch since the box camera snapped old dad at Santa Monica Beach. But I think he doesn't realize how much he has changed.

Dad insists on sitting around the house in swimming trunks. My mother doesn't like it, either. Every now and then she'll say, "Harold, go put a robe on." But he pays no attention.

My dad is wonderful and I love all 220 pounds of him, but do you think he should sit in the living room in swimming trunks when I have company?—GHANDI'S DAUGHTER.

Dear Daughter: When your mother gives out with the, "Harold, go put a robe on!" Harold should do it as a matter of courtesy to the other members of the family.

You wouldn't sit in the living room in your bathing suit when dad entertains business friends, would you? Well, this is the same thing.

Cold Californians

Dear Ann: My husband and I and our three young children moved to California 18 months ago. We have a beautiful little home, my husband likes his job, the weather is divine, but we are terribly lonely.

We've tried every which way to make friends—without success. We joined a church and attended three social gatherings. Beyond "hello," not a single couple said a word to us. The people seemed lovely—the kind we'd like to know. And they were friendly—to each other.

Both my husband and I are beginning to think something must be wrong with us, but we don't know what it is. In Illinois we had no trouble making friends. We read your column back home and we read it here. Believe it or not, Ann, you're our only friend. Can you help?—MRS. X.

Dear Mrs. X: Join smaller organizations and get on working committees. Investigate the Great Books movement, a volunteer political group, Bible study, League of Women voters, Red Cross—the list is endless.

You will surely hit it off with one or two women. You can then invite them over for an evening—with their husbands.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Keep In Trim

'You're looking Slimmer' Spurs Dieter

"You're slimmer!" On hearing that remark from a friend the dieter "grew" an inch taller as she replied, "O thank you for noticing. I've lost 11 pounds and no one else has mentioned it."

The amount of weight that has to be lost before your friends will notice is proportional to the amount of your overweight. If you are in the large size dress category, it may be 15 to 20 pounds before you receive a compliment.

Another factor enters the picture: If the friend you are meeting has not seen you for a long time, perhaps you are heavier than when she saw you last. You may be greeted with the demoralizing inquiry, "Haven't you put on weight since I saw you last?" Don't let it throw you, roll with the punch. Just be thankful you have already taken measures and are slimming down.

ONE DIETER wrote: "Wouldn't you think my husband would comment about my looking thinner? He's quick enough to tell me when I look fatter!"

This isn't surprising. The person who sees you every day is less aware of any change than the friend who sees you occasionally. Chances are he wasn't quick to tell his wife she had gained, not until he saw her in a tight skirt.

One sure way for a dieter to receive compliments early is to take stretch-bend-swings. By restoring tone to flabby muscles, you look slim faster. Toned muscles hug the silhouette. Also, a small amount of regular exercise has a tonic effect on your posture. You feel more like standing and sitting beautifully. Improved posture amounts to instant slimming.

One dieter hit upon a plan which brought early compliments: Here it is:

"I decided to fix myself up while I was dieting and the rewards are unexpectedly marvelous. I set out to improve my everyday appearance. I wash and curl my hair before it begins to look straggly.

"I wear my prettiest afternoon dresses, and find myself standing straighter. I even put on a little perfume, for this adds to my mood. Believe it or not my husband told me I was looking slimmer!"

"I have only lost a total of six pounds, but I look better so he complimented me. I call this my gay way to slim down. I even find that I enjoy my exercise session."

THE SECRET of success in any endeavor is to take the definite step to turn a wish into a reality. Act with directness. Do something every day toward achieving your goal.

Soon you will be "advancing confidently in the direction of your dreams." When you take the first steps eagerly a spark can be blown into a blaze. This really happens!

Send a stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for "Take Your Choice Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

case grew out of squabbles between the children of the two couples.

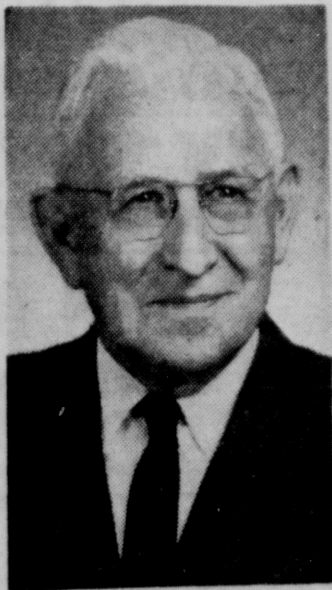

"If you leave children alone, they'll resolve their differences," Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark commented to the court. "It's only when adults interfere that there's trouble."

After the trial concluded, Judge Chertoff talked privately in his chambers with the seven children of the two families.

"I found they are 'just kids'—normal youngsters who played together before the difficulty arose," the judge said.

The population of India is now more than 454 million, according to that government's most recent announcement. India has a population growth rate of 2.5 per cent a year.

12 More Men Retired From Staff Of Mill

The Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. has announced the retirements of 12 employees, including Jake R. Weiford of Industry, veteran of nearly 40 years.

Weiford was a billeteer operator in the conditioning department. He joined Crucible in 1923 as a loader in the blooming mill. He was transferred eight years later to the conditioning department, where he remained until his retirement.

Others retiring were Clarence Owen, turn foreman, inspection 10-12-14-inch and 12-18-inch mills, 34 years; Ralph B. Clutter, turn foreman, heat treat and cold drawn, 28; Donald S. Miller, substation operator, electrical department, James D. Tice, helper on straightener machine, 24-inch mill, 20 years each and John R. Williams, laborer, cold plant, 15 years, all of East Liverpool.

Others were Robert E. Barth of Wellsville, stripper man, open hearth, 16, and James M. Green, general foreman, coke plant, 35; James Love, janitor, metallurgical department, 27, and Giuseppe Lozzi, machinist, machine shop, 27, all of Midland.

Two others retiring were Worthington Gunsauly of Beaver, foreman, conditioning department, 36, and Michael Druzak of Monaca, stores and tool room attendant, plant maintenance, 22 years.

The "high-jumping" championship of the animal kingdom probably belongs to the klipspringer, or "African chamois". This little animal is only about three feet long and weighs some 20 pounds, but it can get a foothold on a rock only a few inches in diameter and has been known to scale heights of 25 feet in a single leap.

Check Condition Of Refuse Cans, Melvin Requests

Incinerator Supt. John Melvin today requested that householders check the condition of their garbage cans, replacing those which show holes or have missing lids.

A leaky can may spill liquid on garbage collectors, a particular hardship in cold winter weather, the superintendent said. Refuse is liable to freeze or become water-soaked in containers without proper lids, he added.

Melvin also requested that householders place trash containers at the curb or property line in order to expedite collections. "Co-operation will help us eliminate call-backs and enable us to do a better job," he said.

Melvin also reminded that metal cans and bottles should not be mixed with garbage. The two types of refuse are collected separately on regular schedules, he explained.

Students In Hancock To Get Report Cards

Hancock County students will receive their first report cards on Nov. 13.

The Board of Education last spring adopted a policy reducing the grading periods from six to four of 45 days each. Other report card dates will be Jan. 28, April 4 and June 17.

The new system also includes parent-teacher conference days following issuance of the report card. The first conference day will be Nov. 16. The others are Feb. 4 and April 11.

Crucial Game At Steubenville . . .

A game that could go a long way in deciding the state championship in football for the 1962 season unfolds tonight in Steubenville.

Ever since Toledo Devilbiss knocked off Alliance last week, the Steubenville Big Red-Toledo Central game slated tonight at Harding Stadium has taken on added importance.

Before the Devilbiss game, Alliance was No. 1 and Niles No. 2. These two schools clash next week and it was thought by all that the Alliance-Niles game would decide the Ohio title.

Now the scene shifts to Big Red. Steubenville was ranked fifth in this week's poll while Central was named the No. 2 team in the state. A win by Big Red tonight could go a long way in bringing the state championship to the Ohio Valley.

The Toledo eleven invades tonight with a 7-0 mark while Big Red has an 8-0 record.

Letter To The Sports Editor . . .

Dear Mr. Duffy,
This is my first and last letter to you on this or any other subject.

On Friday, Oct. 23, 1962, it was my fortune or misfortune to listen to the post-game wrapup over WOHI by Joe Coons and Bob Miller who do the color and play-by-play of East Liverpool football games.

Giving a resume and opinion is their job and prerogative, but the silly remarks and at times vicious and cruel treatment of not only Coach Hedmond but also our team as a whole has caused not only me but many other folks to wonder if perhaps they and not the Potters need a change.

Mr. Miller stated that he had broadcast 17 Potter games. I have heard a few of them and also other games he has called. Before he criticizes a man for doing his job to the best of his ability, he had better listen to a tape playback of one of his games.

Granted, our team has not performed as well this year as past East Liverpool teams, but now is the time they need more of our support. Never once have our kids quit under pressure.

In closing may I say to Mr. Coons and Mr. Miller, our coach never tells you how to do your job although there is much room for improvement. Good luck Potters.

Another Winner For McIntire . . .

WELLSVILLE'S Vic McIntire has piloted his Eastlake North High School squad to its second straight Greater Cleveland Conference grid championship, making a clean sweep of conference games for the season. The former Tiger star has been at Eastlake for five years. His team lost only to Ashtabula, 22-20, in a non-conference game.

McIntire, 38, was graduated from Wellsville High in 1943 and went on to star in athletics at Kent State University. He later coached six years at Wooster High and one year at Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C. Vic is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan McIntire, 914 Center St., Wellsville.

Gridder Scores 68 Points . . .

YOUNG Herbie Phelps of Old Kentucky Home High School must have been plenty tired after setting a state prep football scoring record in a game last Friday night at Bardstown, Ky.

He streaked for 10 touchdowns and scored eight extra points to account for 68 of his team's total of 75. Phelps carried 20 times and gained 392 yards as his team won, 75-6.

Two players share the district's top scoring effort in a single game this season. Columbiana's Dale Murphy and New Cumberland's Jim Burskey each tallied four times in a single game.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

CONGRATULATIONS to the East Liverpool High cross-country team for capturing its second straight district title last Saturday at St. Clairsville. And along with the congratulations we wish the Potter runners good luck in the state meet tomorrow at Columbus.

Coach Frank Chan and his squad also appreciate the donation by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club which paid for meals at out-of-town meets.

ALL Little Potter League coaches who guided teams last season in the basketball loop for youngsters are requested to attend a meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the Travelers Hotel, Harry McConville, president announced.

WE SUFFERED our worst week in the business of forecasting football games by tripping over five while showing eight right.

Tonight's annual battle between East Liverpool and Salem could hold many surprises. Both teams are coming off very bad games. The Potters hit bottom last week against Bellaire St. John's, but we understand Salem didn't look much better losing to Boardman. We are picking the home team tonight, the Quakers, by a touchdown.

Wellsville should get back on the winning trail tonight at Springfield. The Tigers by 12 points. SALINEVILLE rates a touchdown edge on Chester. MIDLAND by six points over Freedom. NEW CUMBERLAND by a touchdown over Jefferson Union. TORONTO to nip slumping Beaver Local by two points. LOUISVILLE, a three-touchdown choice over East Palestine. COLUMBIANA by 12 points over Lisbon and LEETONIA a one-TD edge over Sebring.

Saturday shows only two games, with SPRINGFIELD a touchdown better than United and GREENFORD due to halt Crestview's winning streak.

NICK MUSURACA of East Liverpool continued his climb in the Ohio Conference rushing figures. He came up with a 133 yards to lead Denison in a 17-3 win over Heidelberg last Saturday night. His total to date is 432 in six games. Nick stands fourth among the Ohio Conference ground gainers.

WE KNOW of one sports fan in the city who is justly proud of the honesty demonstrated by one of the young girls working at the concession stand at Patterson Field during Thursday's football game between Westgate and East Junior High.

It seems he was overcharged for three cups of coffee, paying 30 cents instead of 15 cents. But after realizing her error, the youngster ran about 50 yards to the stadium seats at midfield, sought out her customer in the crowd, and reimbursed him his correct change with a proper apology.

Westgate Scores 20-8 Win Over Rival East

Lamborn Tallies 2 TD's For West

Dick Lamborn, the lightest runner in the Westgate backfield, raced over for two touchdowns, as the Panthers averaged last year's loss with a 20-8 victory over East Junior High Thursday before some 800 fans at Patterson Field.

The victory gave Coach Larry Foltz's team a 4-2 mark for the season while East Junior ended its campaign with a 2-4 record.

BY WINNING yesterday's contest Westgate now holds a 5-2 lead in the seven game series with its arch rival.

Westgate drove some 70 yards in the first period for its initial score which saw Lamborn, a 112 pound scatback, zip over from eight yards out around the left side. A run for the conversion failed.

time with a 6-0 lead. The Panthers made it 12-0 when Lamborn hit paydirt from three yards out in the third quarter then capped the scoring in the fourth period when hard running Bob Woods busted his way for 15 yards with the final TD. Quarterback Chuck Winters ran the conversion to boost the count to 20-0.

EAST JUNIOR which had one TD called back on a clipping penalty in the third quarter broke the ice with about 1:30 remaining in the game when quarterback Mike Goodballet went over from four yards away. Nick Marchbanks added the two-point conversion.

Besides scoring the TD, Good-ballet set it up with his passing in the fourth period.

Westgate had one touchdown called back in the first half.

USC Battles Washington, LSU Will Test Ole Miss

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Key conference clashes dot Saturday's football map with Los Angeles, Baton Rouge, La., and Lincoln, Neb., among the assorted stops marking the crossroads for a host of high-ranking major college teams marching toward post-season bowl berths.

Among the many eye-catching attractions are two games involving teams ranked in The Associated Press Top Ten and a Big Eight conference blue plate special.

At Los Angeles, third-ranked Southern California meets invading Washington, No. 9, in a Big Six showdown that should match the Trojans' aerial strikes of Pete Beathard and Bill Nelson against the Huskies' ground forays, led by Charlie Mitchell.

At Baton Rouge, sixth-rated Mississippi and prize passer Glynn Griffing will tackle fourth-ranked Louisiana State and All-America halfback candidate Jerry Stovall in a Southeastern Conference meeting.

And at Lincoln, Big Eight co-leaders Nebraska and Missouri, both unbeaten and both knocking at the Top Ten door, come together for a test of strength in which the Cornhuskers' quarterback, Dennis Claridge, will be trying to dent the solid defense of once-tied Missouri.

The USC-Washington and Nebraska-Missouri games will be regionally televised as will the Navy-Notre Dame encounter at Philadelphia, where the four-times beaten Irish will have to remain awake against a potent Middles' offense sparked by sophomore quarterback Roger Staubach.

The weekend program gets underway tonight with two games—Richmond at George Washington and Kentucky at Miami, Fla.—then heads into a Saturday program that also features conference games for Northwestern and Alabama—currently ranked the nation's top two teams.

The Wildcats, leading the Big Ten race, tangle with conference foe Indiana in an effort to remain ahead of pursuing Purdue and Michigan State. Alabama is at Mississippi State for a SEC meeting, trying to stay in front of Mississippi, LSU and Auburn.

Michigan State, seventh-ranked, will rely on speedy George Saimes at Minnesota in a Big Ten game while Northwestern counts on the passing of Tommy (Gun) Myers against the Hoosiers. Purdue tries to keep pace against Illinois.

Auburn, whose stiff defense has contributed heavily to the Tigers' 10th ranked position is at Florida. In other games involving Top Ten members, No. 5 Texas plays Southern Methodist, and No. 8 Arkansas is at Texas A&M.

Quakers Have Slipped In Last Few Tilts

Nose diving Salem, an undefeated team in its first four games, rates a slight edge over the East Liverpool Potters when the two county rivals hook up for game No. 47 tonight at Reilly Stadium in Salem. The kickoff is 8 p. m.

The Quakers, with a 5-3 record now, still command the respect of Potter Coach Bob Hedmond. "They (Salem) are a good scrappy club, any team that can come from behind and beat a good team like Farrell you have to respect," Hedmond said.

SALEM was trailing Farrell but came storming back to beat the Pennsylvanians 18-13. That win represented Salem's fourth straight but after that Blaine Morton's team started downhill.

Marietta, then rated among the top 10 in the state, started Salem on its way with a 30-6 defeat. Akron Hoban was next scoring a surprising 32-13 victory. Salem rebounded to down Wellsville 32-12 with a fourth quarter surge but last Friday the Quakers dropped an 18-6 decision to Boardman.

EAST Liverpool is in better shape physically this week with only two players very doubtful of seeing action. Ron Echols has a knee injury and probably "won't play" according to Hedmond. Dave Oliver, the 190-pound tackle, and kick off man, is still getting over a leg injury.

Hedmond doesn't plan any changes as the Potters attempt to snap a three game losing streak and win their second game of the season.

The starting backfield will read Chuck Baker at quarterback with Tom Kraft and Bob Mercer at the halfback spots. Bob Bowyer will get the nod at fullback.

WHILE this quartet represents the starting backfield unit, Hedmond pointed out that he will be using numerous backs as he has done in the past. They would include Earl Olmstead and John DiPasquale at halfback positions, Len Oliver and Dick Heddlston at fullback and Bob Forzano at quarterback.

East Liverpool goes into tonight's game with a 24-20 edge on Salem in the long series which dates back to 1911. Two battles ended in ties.

Youngstown Ends Akron String In Disputed Tilt

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—The Youngstown Penguins ended Akron's unbeaten streak at six games Thursday night in a football game that almost wasn't played because of a conflict over interpretation of the substitution rule. The score was 17-13.

Akron officials announced Wednesday the game had been cancelled because of the substitution controversy, but they later decided to play the contest after Youngstown coach Dike Beede claimed a forfeit victory.

A 21-yard field goal by Penguin Dick Hartzell broke a tie in the second quarter and the visitors were never able to catch up.

Akron, a member of the Ohio Conference, wanted the game played under rules of that conference, but Youngstown wanted NCAA rules to prevail.

The Ohio Conference permits a team to make any number of changes in its lineup at any time. The NCAA substitution rule provides that a team may send in replacements one at a time while the clock is running, but when the ball is dead unlimited substitution is allowed.

Married Cager Files Suit Over Board's Ruling

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Michael Baker, one of the starting players for Hamilton Taft High School's state basketball champions last season, wants Common Pleas Court to allow him to play again.

The 17-year-old senior filed suit Thursday through his mother, claiming the city school board and Supt. R. L. Dickey barred him from outside activities because he married earlier this year.

Baker, vice president of his class as a sophomore and junior, claimed he was denied an integral part of his education by being kept from extra-curricular activities.

Mexican Auto Driver Killed

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Bold and brazen Ricardo Rodriguez, who chased fame with the gas pedal of his racing car pushed flat to the floor, was killed Thursday when his sleek Lotus careened off the track in a practice session at the Mexico Autodrome.

The younger and more daring of Mexico's auto racing brothers, Ricardo was 21.

Brother Pedro, 23, and Ricardo's father, mother and wife of less than a year, Sara, were in the pit area when Ricardo's auto swerved off the concrete track at a U-curve, overturned and caught fire during a trial run for the Grand Prix of Mexico Sunday.

Ricardo, still alive, was lifted from near the wreck as his father raced to his side. At the sight of his son, Pedro Sr. fainted. He recovered as Ricardo was placed in an ambulance and was with his son when he died en route to a hospital.

Ricardo's death unofficially was the 19th in all types of auto racing this year. Eleven fatal accidents have occurred in the United States, eight throughout the rest of the world.

Football Deaths Run 28 Per Cent Below Last Year

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A coaches' survey shows football deaths are running 28 per cent below the 1961 level.

At this time a year ago there had been 35 fatalities directly or indirectly attributed to football. Dr. Floyd Eastwood says there have been only 25 this season. Dr. Eastwood is chairman of the surveying committee of the American Football Coaches Association.

Of the 25 deaths this season, 16 were ascribed directly to football injuries and nine to indirect causes. Of the 16 direct, 11 were in high school and five in sandlot football. Of the nine indirect fatalities, three were in college, one in sandlot and five in high school competition.

Football Yells Replace Jeers For Meredith

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—Normal sounds of campus life—rallying cries for a football team—returned to the University of Mississippi in the wake of a stern warning by Chancellor J. D. Williams against rowdiness.

More than 1,000 students gleefully yelled insults Thursday night, but this time they were not directed at James H. Meredith, the Air Force veteran who became the first Negro ever knowingly admitted to Ole Miss.

Instead, the students aimed their yells against Louisiana State University, the Ole Miss football rival Saturday night.

A short distance away Meredith, 29, remained in his two-room apartment in Baxter Hall where combat-ready military police guard all entrances with fixed bayonets.

"Swift and drastic disciplinary action, including expulsion" was promised by the chancellor in two speeches Thursday to nearly all of the male students.

"The university could lose its accreditation if there are further breakdowns in student behavior," Williams said. "An institution can retain its accreditation only so long as it maintains on its campus a climate that is conducive to study and learning, an atmosphere favorable to intellectual pursuits."

"If there are any who cannot support the establishment of peaceful and orderly conditions, be advised that I am prepared to see us part company."

The talk drew ringing applause. The chancellor's talk came less than 24 hours after a raid by MP's on a dormitory Wednesday night. The search, under supervision of university officials, turned up a small cache of weapons.

University officials said disciplinary action against eight to 10 students would be considered today by the Student Judicial Council.

Earlier this week, protests against Meredith reached their highest peak since the bloody rioting of Sept. 30 which left two dead and scores injured. Monday and Tuesday night a barrage of firecrackers—mostly the loud-sounding ones called cherry bombs—were hurled at Meredith's room.

Punt, Pass, Kick

At Midland Canceled
Migliore Ford Sales at Midland said the punt, pass and kick contest scheduled for Saturday has been canceled because enough boys did not register. Deadline was Wednesday.

Fifteen prizes were to be given to boys 7 to 11 who won. The Board of Education had approved use of the athletic field for the free contest.

Time For Retirement

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Bob Goldwater, former Arizona amateur golf champion and recent winner of several tournaments around the state, says it must be about time for him to retire from the links.

During the pro-amateur play prior to the Phoenix Ladies PGA tournament, Goldwater was given a 7-stroke handicap while playing with pro Peggy Wilson and scratch player Carol Sorenson, a young coed from Arizona State University.

Mays Awaits Release From Hospital Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The baseball world learns today what, if anything, is ailing Willie Mays.

Baseball's highest paid player was expected to be released from Mount Zion Hospital where for the past two days he has undergone an intensive series of medical tests.

The San Francisco Giants' $90,000-a-year star center fielder entered the hospital Tuesday for what doctors said would be a complete physical examination. Mays' health has been an issue since he collapsed Sept. 12 in Cincinnati.

Terry Says Stafford Will Be One Of Best

ENGLEWOOD, N. J. (AP)—Ralph Terry, World Series pitching hero of the New York Yankees, predicts that Bill Stafford, only 24, will become one of the best right-handed pitchers in baseball.

Terry also is right-handed. "Stafford has the poise, the desire and he knows no fear out on the mound," says Terry.

Terry, 26, stayed here with golf pro Jerry Volpe for a few days after the World Series when Mrs. Tanya Terry flew in from Larned, Kan.

October Sets Snow Record

October's weather set a new record — for snow, according to the monthly summary issued by Edwin Copeland of Millport, U. S. Weather observer.

The average snowfall for the month is 0.2 inch, but a total of 3.5 inches was recorded on Oct. 25. This is the largest on record for any October, he commented, and also the first time snow has ever remained on the ground overnight during the month.

But, even with the moisture provided by the snow, the below-average rainfall brought the water shortage to a total of 5.7 inches. The ground still needs plenty of water, Copeland commented.

Rainfall totaled 1.67 inches, well below the average of 2.32 inches.

The average temperature was 53.2 degrees, higher than the normal 51.4 degrees. A high of 82 was recorded Oct. 15 and 16, while the low of 20 was registered Oct. 27.

The first killing frost was on Oct. 25. The average frost date is Oct. 3.

There were 15 clear days, 10 cloudy and six partly cloudy, making sunshine average out at 58 per cent — well above the overall average of 50 per cent.

Copeland said small grains such as wheat, barley and rye got off to a good start because of the above-average rainfall recorded in September and the nice warm days recorded during October. "Some may even have gotten a little too big," he said.

2 From District To Attend NCCW

Mrs. Robert L. Carter of Summitville and Mrs. John Burnett of Hanoverton will attend the 31st annual convention of the National Council of Catholic Women Saturday through Thursday at the Cobo Hall Convention Center in Detroit.

Mrs. Carter is president of the Columbiana County Deane and Mrs. Burnett, rural life chairman.

The theme is "The Christian In a Changing World." About 10,000 are expected to attend.

Principal speakers will be Mrs. Esther Peterson, assistant secretary of the Department of Labor and director of its Women's Bureau; Martin Work, executive director of the NCCW; Romeo Malone, assistant director of the Canadian Conference; Mrs. Jacqueline Stuyt of the Catholic Union of Great Britain and Miss Alba Zizzamiz, assistant observer at the United Nations.

Halloween Party Held At Irondale

A Halloween party was held Tuesday afternoon for the Primary and Junior Classes of the Irondale Presbyterian Church in the social rooms. Fourteen were present.

Costume prizes were awarded. Mrs. Betty Sayre and Mrs. Annabel Dallas, teachers, were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Hannah Brown.

Charles Starkey of Canton has concluded a month's visit with his niece Mrs. Harold Gill.

Mrs. William Dunn and son of Burlington, N.D., are spending two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Ethel Sharp.

Marine Pvt. Stan Wickham is spending a furlough with his wife and family. He is stationed at Camp LeJeune, N.C., and entered the service in July.

Mrs. Charles Leffler has returned to Norfolk, Va., after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nicholson.

Director Seeks Bids For Sale Of Cruiser

Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said today he will receive informal bids until 4 p. m. Monday for sale of a 1961 Rambler Ambassador four-door sedan which has been used as a police cruiser.

Prospective bidders may inspect the auto at the police department garage, the director said. The Rambler was replaced by one of two new Plymouth "Patroller" cruisers delivered to the city Tuesday afternoon by Central Service, Inc.

City ordinances give the director authority to make sales or purchases involving property worth less than $1,000 without authorization voted by Council.

55 See Corn Harvest At Firestone Farms

LISBON — Thirty-five persons attended the harvest of corn from 45 test plots at Firestone Farms Wednesday, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Lewis Saboe, agronomist at Ohio State University, answered questions on the different varieties and W. E. Gill, agriculture engineer at Ohio State, checked ear and picker loss.

Results of the tests will be available at the Extension Service office for anyone interested, Myers said.

Single Vote May Decide Control Of Ohio Senate
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Political control of the next Ohio Senate could possibly hinge on a single vote.
The lineup after next Tuesday's votes are counted could be 17-16 either way in next year's 33-member upper house. Republicans control the present 38-man senate 20-18.
If Republicans retain control, the deciding vote could be that of Majority Leader C. Stanley

REQUIEM FOR A HEAVYWEIGHT

J. Sherman Porter of Gallipolis is battling for his political life against a comeback bid by former Republican Sen. Oakley C. Collins of Ironton.
In the 24th-26th District (Ashtabula, Geauga, Lake and Portage counties), the contest is for the seat of Democratic Sen. Milton Cox, who was defeated for renomination. The Democratic nominee is Michael D. Coffey, Mentor attorney. The Republican candidate is Rep. Robert E. Stockdale, Kent public relations consultant.
Since the advent of four-year Senate terms four years ago, figuring membership in each succeeding session is something akin to solving a Chinese puzzle.
Stated simply, there are 14 holdovers for the next session beginning in January — nine Republicans and five Democrats. There are two vacancies, one in each party, which will be filled in Tuesday's election. Both vacancies apparently will be filled by members of the same party which held the seats last. That would make the lineup 10-6 Republican.
Barring unexpected upsets, Republicans appear sure to elect five, four incumbents and one other, and the Democrats six, five incumbents and one other. That would make the lineup 15-12, still in the GOP's favor.
That leaves six seats on what might be called the uncertain list. Five are held by Democrats and one is a new, two-year term for Toledo. Democrats are figuring Frazier Reams Jr. will top Republican Rep. John J. Connors Jr. in the two-year term contest in Toledo.

The highest dam in the United States, east of the Rockies, is the Fontana Dam on the Little Tennessee River in North Carolina.
Panel Recesses In Liquor Probe
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The special grand jury's investigation into alleged influence peddling in Ohio's Liquor Department has recessed until after the election.
The jury concluded three weeks of testimony Thursday with the announcement that it was to meet again Nov. 13.
During the interim, special counsel Adrian B. Fink Jr. said he hopes to find Joseph Makler, the Chicago distillery president who made the original charges. Makler has not been seen since Sept. 29.
The chief witnesses in the investigation have yet to come before the grand jury. They include, Gilbert Blenkin, president of Famous Brands, Inc., of Dayton, who was mentioned by Makler; Sidney S. Shine, former vice president of Famous Brands; former liquor director Richard Crouch and George Flanagan, a Dayton beer distributor, also mentioned by Makler.

LEGAL NOTICES

ANA COUNTY OHIO, IN THE MATTER OF THE HEREIN AFTER DESCRIBED IMPROVEMENT UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE DIRECTOR OF HIGHWAYS

WHEREAS, the Director of Highways is considering improving a portion of the public highway which is described as follows:

Being the grading, draining and paving of that portion of St. Clair Avenue extending from Princeton Avenue to the north corporation line, and being approximately 1.53 miles in length.

BE IT ORDAINED BY the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. (Consent) That it is declared to be in the public interest that the consent of said City and such consent is hereby given to the Director of Highways to construct the above described improvement, in accordance with plans, specifications and estimates as prepared by said Director.

SECTION 2. (Cooperation) That said City hereby proposes to cooperate with the State of Ohio in the cost of the above described improvement by assuming and contributing 50% of the cost of construction and Construction Engineering and 100% of the cost of all other items not reimbursable by the State of Ohio, including the cost of engineering, contingencies and other incidental expenses.

SECTION 3. (Authority to Sign) That the Service Director of said City is hereby authorized to enter into maintenance and parking agreements and special contractual obligations.

SECTION 4. (Maintenance) That it is hereby agreed that said City will, after completion of the improvement herein contemplated in accordance with the provisions of the statutes relating thereto and will make ample financial and other provisions for such maintenance and maintain the right of way and keep the same in good order and in a manner satisfactory to the State of Ohio.

SECTION 5. (Parking Regulations) That upon completion of said improvement said City will thereafter:

(a) keep said highway open to traffic at all times; and (b) regulate parking in the following manner:

Directional traffic will be enforced with two lanes in-bound and one lane out-bound from 6:00 A. M. to 9:00 P. M. and two lanes out-bound and one lane in-bound from 9:00 P. M. to 6:00 A. M. During these two periods no parking will be permitted. At all other hours, parallel parking only will be permitted on the west side of the street.

SECTION 6. That traffic control lights will not be installed on the project without prior approval by the State.

SECTION 7. That the rights-of-way provided for said improvement shall be held in violation for public highway purposes and no signs, posters, billboards roadside stands or other private installations shall be permitted within the right-of-way limits.

SECTION 8. (Certification of Availability of Right of Way, Utility Re-arrangement and Saving the State of Ohio Harmless of Damages.)

(a) That all existing right of way within the City, which is necessary for the aforesaid improvement, shall be made available therefor.

(b) That the Municipality will acquire any additional right of way required for the construction of the aforesaid improvement.

(c) That all arrangements have been or will be made with and agreements obtained from all public utility companies whose lines or structures will be affected by the said improvement and said companies have agreed to make such necessary rearrangements immediately after notifications by said city or the Department of Highways.

(d) That it is hereby agreed that the city shall at its own expense, make all rearrangements of water mains, service lines, fire hydrants, valve boxes, sanitary sewers or other municipally owned utilities and/or any appurtenances thereof, whether inside or outside the corporate limits as may be necessary to conform to the said improvement and said arrangements shall be done at such time as requested by the Department of Highways Engineer.

(e) That the construction, reconstruction, and/or rearrangement of both publicly and privately owned lines, referred to in subsections (c) and (d) above, shall be done in such a manner as not to interfere unduly with the operation of the contractor constructing the improvement and all back-filling of trenches made necessary by such utility rearrangements shall be performed in accordance with the provisions of Section I — 107 of the Ohio Department of Highways Construction and Materials Specifications and shall be subject to the approval by the State.

(f) That said city hereby agrees that the said Department of Highways of the State of Ohio, shall be and is hereby saved harmless from any and all damages or claims thereof arising from or growing out of the certification or obligations made or agreed to in Sections (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) hereinabove.

SECTION 9. (Emergency Clause) This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and by reason of the need for expediting construction of project to promote highway safety, and provided it receives the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to Council, it shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval by the mayor; otherwise it shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

5 SPECIAL NOTICES

FALL OUT SHELTERS

One year ago in September I attended a meeting for CD in Dayton, Ohio. I learned at that time that radiation dies 90% in 7 hours and 99% is dead in 48 hours. I also found that 3 ft. of earth, 4 ft. of wood, 2 ft. of concrete, 8 inches of steel or 3 inches of lead is a good safe measure of protection against radiation. As a result I installed a shelter for myself and family and later received the franchise for the Anderson Fallout Shelter. This shelter is built 4 ft. in the ground, giving you protection against the cold of winter. It's built of steel for strength against concussion. It's equipped with living and sleeping quarters and has ample storage space for food, water and clothing, yond is hot and fireproof. Over the winter I talked to many people about installing a shelter at a minimum cost with little or no profit to me, but everyone seemed to think the government should provide shelter for their family, as if then it would be free. Many people claimed to be too poor and said these things are only for rich people. When I encouraged installment buying, as I did, they laughed about the bank giving up to 20 years to pay. If they were going to be around for 20 years to pay for a shelter they didn't need one. Well, let me tell you its possible to not be hit with a bomb, but if war comes, it is possible too. You and your family could surely perish from radiation and not be here for sure. Many people feel it's no use because the lingering effects from Strontium 90 would get you anyway. Since that time one of our scientists has discovered a way to cleanse our body of this element. If the poor, barefoot, hungry, and ragged soldiers at Valley Forge had no more courage and backbone than have the Americans of today, there wouldn't be any United States of America. Heed the warning. Face the facts. To survive it takes work and planning. Now that the day we are attacked, but ahead of time, I pray that this dangerous time passes and we will all have one more chance to prepare to the best of our ability for the danger that lies ahead. When Adlai Stevenson asked the Russian delegate for an answer about missiles the Anderson Fallout Shelter said "You will get your answer in due time." Can you be sure it won't be the release of a few hundred missiles? I am repeating the words I put in my last year. I am not saying buy a shelter from me. I'm saying do some work. Don't sit on your hands and wait. You growups, Mothers and Fathers, owe a chance to your children to grow up safe, and strong and healthy.

Junior Editors Quiz on CLOTHES

QUESTION: When did women start wearing trousers?

ANSWER: In China, women have worn trousers for a long time, especially for work. Eskimo women also wore trousers long ago and still do, finding them necessary for warmth. Many women in the Middle East, in countries such as Turkey, have worn baggy trousers. But European and American women had little to do with trousers until, in 1851, a determined lady, Amelia Jenks Bloomer, began to lecture in favor of women's rights, wearing "Turkish pantaloons." A craze for knee length "bloomers" followed. Mrs. Bloomer did not succeed in dressing American women in "Turkish pantaloons," but the women's rights movement did succeed. Women got jobs, became interested in sports and the outdoors. By the 1930's, beach pajamas had appeared and it became smart to wear mannish slacks with jackets for sports wear; soon trousers were an established fashion. Ski pants appeared at winter resorts. During World War II, women in factories found trousers safe and comfortable. Horsewomen, of course, had been wearing riding breeches since the sidesaddle went out of general use.

FOR YOU TO DO: Look up the interesting story of Mrs. Bloomer. She gave up wearing her famous "Turkish pantaloons" in 1859, but went on writing and lecturing in favor of women's rights.

Paul Townsend of Hickory, N. C., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Nov. 2, the 306th day of 1962. There are 59 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1634, the Massachusetts Colony ordered the banishment of Anne Hutchinson, founder of the Antinomian Party in New England. The order came after she had been made a member of the Boston Church.

On this date:

In 1783, George Washington delivered his farewell address to the Army from Rocky Hill, near Princeton, N. J.

In 1919, John D. Rockefeller added $10 million to the endowment of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research.

In 1937, Fiorella la Guardia was reelected mayor of New York--the first reform mayor to succeed himself in the city's history.

In 1950, the noted Irish playwright - novelist, George Bernard Shaw, died.

Today's birthdays:

Former U.S. diplomat - banker Winthrop Aldrich is 77. Actor Dennis King is 65.

Thought for today:

Humility is a virtue all preach, none practice; and yet every body is content to hear -- John Selden.

Airlifting Electric Power Towers

...another new way AEP keeps your electric costs low

Power towers that bring electricity to your home, or business, are now being flown to their foundations by helicopter.

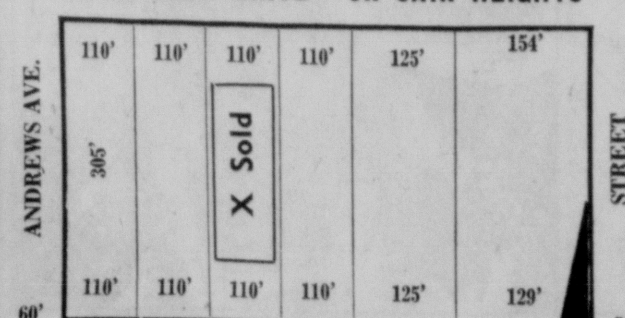

Helicopters are working on American Electric Power System lines as go-anywhere trucks...as flying cranes...as high-speed cable stringers.

Doing things in new ways to improve service and efficiency is one big reason why the average unit price of electricity, for customers of Ohio Power Company, has not gone up during twenty years of inflation.
